Judge Joseph A. Greenaway to be the Keynote Speaker at Cardozo's 45th Commencement

The Hon. Joseph A. Greenaway, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, is an integral part of the Cardozo community, serving as an adjunct professor teaching courses on trial practice and appellate advocacy to great acclaim.

Professor Jessica Roth Discusses the Alex Murdaugh Trial On Anderson Cooper 360, NBC News and The New York Times

"By being able to present evidence of the enormity of the defendant's debts, the spiraling downward and crescendo that was happening in his life, that created a compelling story, an explanation," Roth told NBC News. "But it may not be enough at the end of the day."

Professor Pamela Foohey Speaks to Wall Street Journal on Late Car Payments Causing Stress in the Auto-Loan Market

“The households that were on the financial ledge to begin with might have been tipped to the point where it’s hard to keep up on the car loan and everything else, and people have to make some very hard decisions,” Foohey said. She was also quoted in Consumer Affairs.
