The Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust
and Human Rights invites you to:

Visual Imagery & Human Rights:
A Book Talk with former Cardozo Dean Monroe Price and Professor Sandra Ristovska

Tuesday, February 12, 2019
6 p.m.

Room 1008
Cardozo School of Law
55 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York

Join former Cardozo Dean Monroe Price and representatives from The New York Times and the NGO "Witness" to discuss how new imagery developments are impacting human rights issues such as photography's effect on transitional justice, data collection through body cameras and aerial photography in refugee camps.

Visual Imagery and Human Rights Practice examines the interplay between images and human rights, addressing how, when, and to what ends visuals are becoming a more central means through which human rights claims receive recognition and restitution. The collection argues that accounting for how images work on their own terms is an ever more important epistemological project for fostering the imaginative scope of human rights and its purchase on reality.
