Moderators NYCLA Art Law Committee Co-Chairs:

- Megan Noh, Cahill Cossu Noh & Robinson LLP;
- Irina Tarsis, Center for Art Law, inc.

Panelists

Karin Orenstein is an Assistant United States Attorney in the Eastern District of New York. She has prosecuted a number of prominent cases that have centered on the seizure and repatriation of cultural heritage. She has worked on United States of America v. One Alioramus Dinosaur Skull and, more recently, United States of America v. Approximately Four Hundred Fifty Ancient Cuneiform Tablets. Ms. Orenstein will introduce the laws and legal procedures available to curbing illicit traffic in antiquities.

John P. Labbat is a Special Agent with Immigration and Customs Enforcement and a United States Attorney. Mr. Labbat will discuss legal enforcement against illicit antiquities and artworks and the legal tools that are used to prevent the circulation of these items.

Henry Mazurek, a founding partner of Mazurek Lipton LLP, is a defense and appellate attorney who represents clients in matters of criminal defense, regulatory enforcement, and commercial litigation including issues related to antiquities and the art market in matters of forfeiture. Mr. Mazurek will speak about how clients can be protected in the face of civil forfeiture actions, as well as compliance and due diligence issues that arise for clients while purchasing art and antiquities.
