Professor Jessica Roth Appears on MSNBC and The Takeaway to talk about Mueller and Trump's inaugural funds

Professor Jessica Roth spoke with MSNBC on the connection between Roger Stone and Donald Trump, and what Mueller knows. She also talked with WNYC's The Takeaway about the Southern District's role and the subpoena for Trump's inaugural funds records.

Professor Betsy Ginsberg Interviewed on All in with Chris Hayes; Speaks to NBC News

Professor Betsy Ginsberg appeared on All in with Chris Hayes and spoke to NBC News, offering insight on the inhumane conditions at Metropolitan Detention Center in Brooklyn over the past week and the problems that exist in prisons nationwide.

Professors Alex Reinert and Betsy Ginsberg Co-Author Op-Ed in the Daily News

"Our public officials bear responsibility for the legal framework in which people held in prisons and jails live their lives. Not only have leaders throughout the United States tolerated a legal system that waters down rights for people confined in prisons and jails, but courts and legislatures have erected significant barriers to prevent prisoners and detainees from vindicating those rights," Professors Reinert and Ginsberg wrote in the Daily News.

Professor Anthony Sebok Writes about litigation finance in The Buffalo News

Professor Anthony Sebok wrote "Consumer legal funding provides a safety net that should be protected and strengthened through sensible regulation. New York lawmakers should seek to ensure that the New Yorkers who need it can safely access this critical resource."

Cardozo Earns an "A" ranking from preLaw magazine
