Bully. Coward. Victim. The Story of Roy Cohn
Monday, February 8 at 6:30 p.m.

Professor Barry Scheck, co founder and co director of The Innocence Project at Cardozo Law, discusses the documentary Bully. Coward. Victim. The Story of Roy Cohn with its director, Ivy Meeropol, and her father, Michael Meeropol. Particularly relevant given today's political climate, the conversation will address why now is the time to talk about Roy Cohn.

The documentary offers an unflinching look at the infamous attorney who prosecuted Ivy Meeropol's grandparents, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, and later argued persuasively for their execution in what became known as the "atomic spies" case.

The film examines Cohn's life as chief counsel to Senator Joseph McCarthy in the late 1950s and then through the 1980s when he became a darling of the Reagan White House, a rabid anti-homosexuality activist and political mentor to Donald J. Trump before dying from AIDS in 1986.

This FAME event is co-sponsored by the Filmmakers Legal Clinic and the Cardozo OUTlaw Alumni and Entertainment Law Society.

When: Wednesday, February 10th, at 12 PM NOON
Where: Zoom

Please join us next Wednesday, February 10th, at 12PM for our Spring 2021 General Body Meeting.

In addition to bringing you up to date with past and previous NLG actions and explaining opportunities to be involved in the future, we are lucky to have prolific NYC civil rights lawyer Gideon Oliver join us to drill down into his latest class action against the NYPD. Gideon and others represent a class of arrested protestors and Legal Observers seeking to hold the Department accountable for its brutal and unconstitutional actions during the BLM protests of the summer, especially at the planned Mott Haven assault.

Aside from being a former NLG-NYC President, Gideon has been litigating such civil cases against the government since the 2004 RNC protests and has also been involved in mass defense around Critical Mass bike rides. He is also a frequent legal commentator on local news outlets like WNYC and Gothamist.

So come join, learn about class litigation strategy and get an insight in how even solo-practitioners can push the needle towards justice.
