The 22nd International Advocate for Peace Award Will Be Presented to Gloria Steinem

The Cardozo Journal of Conflict Resolution will present the International Advocate for Peace (IAP) Award to Gloria Steinem, who has dedicated her life to standing up to power and seeking ways to bring about peaceful change. Past recipients have included Presidents Bill Clinton and Jimmy Carter, the Rev. Desmond Tutu, Paul McCartney and Leymah Gbowee.

Professor Alexander Reinert Speaks to New York Law Journal About Gov. Kathy Hochul's Position on Qualified Immunity

“Federal law is going to become even harder to use as an avenue to seek remedies,” Reinert said. “And so, if we believe that state and local officials should be bound by the Constitution, and we believe that people should have a remedy when their rights are violated, then legislation like this is, I think, even more important today.”
