CAMPUS NEWS

Dean Melanie Leslie Quoted in The Washington Post

Dean Melanie Leslie was quoted in The Washington Post about the dispute between filmmaker Woody Allen and Amazon. “‘Frustration of purpose’ is a tough argument for Amazon to make because the allegations were already out there when they made the deal,” [she said], emphasizing that she was evaluating the question on legal, not moral, grounds. “It’s hard for the company to say they didn’t realize what would happen — all they could say is that ‘market forces changed.’”

Professor Jessica Roth Appears on Bloomberg Television

Professor Jessica Roth spoke with Bloomberg Television on February 8 on the Mueller investigation and the Southern District's investigation into Trump campaign finance violations. She also talked with Bloomberg Television February 11 about the Southern District's role in the Jeff Bezos/AMI dispute.

Professor Betsy Ginsberg Quoted in The New York Times

Professor Betsy Ginsberg was quoted in The New York Times, focusing on the inhumane conditions at Metropolitan Detention Center in Brooklyn in recent weeks.

Clinic Presentations Showcase Student Work

The February 6 luncheon included presentations from three groups of clinic students, representing the Divorce Mediation Clinic, Benjamin B. Ferencz Human Rights and Atrocity Prevention Clinic and the Securities Arbitration Clinic.
