The Heyman Center on Corporate Law & Governance invites you to a Heyman Lunch Speaker Series event:

A View from the Inside: The Role of an In-House M&A Attorney ***

Speaker: Joseph Tedeschi, Former General Counsel of M&A Legal, Citigroup
Date: Monday, March 2, 2020
Time: 12:00 pm
Location: Rm 205

Lunch will be provided.

Please join us for a lunch talk with Joseph Tedeschi, former General Counsel of M&A Legal at Citigroup! Mr. Tedeschi will discuss his experience of serving as in-house mergers & acquisitions (M&A) counsel, the unique challenges that arise in the financial services context, and the important role of compliance in this area. He will also describe some key differences between external M&A counsel and in-house M&A counsel and the importance of understanding the business side of deals.

Mr. Tedeschi is the former General Counsel for the Credit Cards & Payments division of Citigroup. Prior to that role, he served as General Counsel to Citi Holdings and General Counsel of M&A Legal.

Mr. Tedeschi is engaged in a variety of non-profit activities and serves as a Board Member of Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts, and as the President and a Board Member of YYDC, Inc., a NY-based non-profit dance company. He is also on the Board of Advisors of Gray Eagle Capital Partners, a venture capital firm.

*This event is part of the Compliance Speaker Series and will qualify towards the Compliance Concentration requirement.

This event is open only to the Cardozo community. If you register and can no longer attend, please let us know so that we have an accurate headcount for catering purposes.
