The Criminal Defense Clinic invites you to a screening of Attica

and a conversation with Tyrone Larkins and Akil Killebrew

Tuesday, November 9
6 p.m.

Jacob Burns Moot Court Room

Join us for a screening of the film in conjunction with a panel discussion featuring Tyrone Larkins and Lawrence Akil Killebrew, both of whom are formerly incarcerated people and were in their early twenties when they were serving their sentences at Attica Prison in 1971. They are survivors of the brutality that was witnessed at Attica between September 9 and September 13, 1971.

Vincent Pullara, Legal Clinics Program Coordinator and Bobby Codjoe, Director of Diversity and Inclusion, will make opening remarks.

This event is co-sponsored by the Public Service Scholars Program, Civil Rights Clinic, and the E. Nathaniel Gates Scholars.
