Do you wonder what life as a lawyer is like? Curious about how others navigated through different career paths? KALSA is having a job panel with attorneys of all different levels and practice areas come answer questions and talk about what they do.

Our distinguished list of panelists include:

Rosa Son, Johnson & Johnson

Danny Lim, Bronx DA

Lester Szeto, Morgan Stanely

William Lee, Ladas & Parry

Julie Cho, Lam Group

Come enjoy some sushi and have a chance to network and have your questions answered!

The event will be held on Wednesday, November 1 at 6:00pm in Room 304

LALSA/ BLSA 1L OUTLINING SESSION

When: TODAY! Wednesday, November 1 @ 12 pm

Where: Room 206

Food: Pizza & Refreshments

Call to 1Ls! We invite you to our annual outlining session, where 2L and 3L students will give tips and answer questions regarding outlining for final exams. With final exams only a few weeks away we highly encourage you to come by. See you there!

For any questions please contact LALSA Academic Chair, Daniel Cedillo.

Cardozo Law Revue Activity Meeting: Court as Theater!

Cardozo Law Revue members are currently cooking up comic scenes and songs for the community's entertainment! As a preview of the coming attraction in Spring 2018, join us in our on-campus performance venue:

Room 425

Wednesday, November 1 at 7:00 pm

If you are interested (a) to show off a talent, (b) to join the cast for the Spring Semester, (c) to contribute writing, (d) to volunteer as crew, or (e) to just otherwise avert scholastic meltdown, join us for skit staging, singing, and improv! Come see MCR in a whole new light!

Upcoming Events

The Cardozo Journal of Conflict Resolution presents:

The 2017 Annual Jed D. Melnick Symposium:

Persistent Human Divides: Creative Initiatives for Communication, Collaboration, and Cohesion

Monday, November 13th, 9am to 5pm

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law: Moot Court Room

A Symposium exploring innovations in the development of dispute resolution teaching, training and tools, including:

- Dispute resolution curriculum for our times
- An important role for art and media in expanding perspectives
- The role of journalists in shaping their readers' understanding of conflicts
- Peacemaking circles to promote healing and harmony in families and communities
- Facilitation and training for groups needing cohesion and community

The Jacob Burns Center for Ethics in the Practice of Law and the Samuel & Ronnie Heyman Center on Corporate Governance present:

Book Talk: The Chickenshit Club, with Jesse Eisinger

Date: Thursday, November 2, 2017

Time: 6:00 pm

Location: Third Floor Lounge

Please join us for a discussion with Jesse Eisinger, Pulitzer-prize winning journalist and Senior Reporter and Editor at ProPublica, about his new book, The Chickenshit Club: Why the Justice Department Fails to Prosecute Executives. In his book, Eisinger explores why no bankers were put in prison after the financial crisis of 2008 and why CEOs seem to commit wrongdoing with impunity. Jessica Roth, co-director of the Burns Center, will moderate the discussion, which will be followed by a Q&A session and book signing reception with the author.

Five lucky attendees will receive a copy of "The Chickenshit Club" at the event. We will have a raffle at the end of the talk and each attendee will be entered into the raffle.
