Today at Cardozo – Monday, March 5 2018

Monday 3/5 in room 420 at 12:30pm

Algorithmic Accountability Bill Panel:

In late 2017, the NYC Council became the first to pass legislation that deals with the issue of accountability and transparency in the creation and use of the important algorithms that have begun to run our lives in critical ways. With this comes more advocacy to move the needle further. Come learn about the bill and the efforts moving forward after the bill now that it has become law from someone who is leading advocacy efforts for it, Rashida Richardson from the NYCLU.

Falafel lunch will be served!
