Today at Cardozo – Monday, November 6, 2017

GDPR: Revolutionizing The Future Of Data Communication

On November 6th, the International Comparative, Policy & Ethics Law Review (ICPELR) will be hosting its fall symposium to discuss the massive changes implemented by the EU that will affect privacy law around the world. Two experts in the field, Richard M. Borden, the chief privacy officer and partner at White and Williams LLP, will be joined by Cardozo's own professor and director of Cardozo Data Law Initiative, Felix Wu, to discuss the implications of this revolutionary change.

The event will take place at the Cardozo Jacob Burns Moot Court Room on November 6th (Monday) at 6PM, with food and beverages provided and a reception to follow. Members of ICPELR don't need to RSVP.
