CICLR SPRING 2022 SYMPOSIUM

The Cardozo International & Comparative Law Review is pleased to host a virtual symposium on Friday, April 8th, from 1:00 to 2:30 pm (EST) to discuss women's role in the judiciary. Panelists will discuss the importance of women's representation in the judiciary and explain why increased diversity within the judiciary helps to promote the rule of law. When the judiciary reflects the society it is intended to serve, can judicial independence, impartiality, and integrity be restored? What other factors are necessary to achieving a fair system of justice and legitimacy? Panelists will address the obstacles to women's full and equal participation in the judiciary and analyze whether reform can effectuate change.

Join us for a virtual panel with Commissioner Doreen B. Boxer, Los Angeles Superior Court Commissioner; Judge Vanessa Ruiz, Senior Judge of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals; Judge Kesha Tanabe, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Minnesota; Judge Francisca

Zapata, Judge of First Pre-Trial Tribunal in Santiago, Chile; Judge Anja Popović Zrelec, Judge in the Higher Court in Belgrade, Appellate Criminal Division; moderated by Dean Melanie Leslie.

Note on CLE credit: This online event is approved for 1.5 transitional/non-transitional New York State CLE credits in the category "Diversity, Inclusion and Elimination of Bias." You must attend the "live" program in order to receive CLE credits. We cannot award CLE credits for watching a recorded version of this program.

HIV/AIDS and the Law

Friday, 3/18/22 at 9:00 AM in Room 205

and on Zoom

Breakfast will be served!

Join PSS to hear from internationally renowned human rights lawyer Anand Grover about HIV/AIDS and the law: from access to medicines, to criminalization, to connections with COVID-19.

About the speaker: Anand Grover is a designated Senior Advocate, practicing in the Supreme Court of India, the Director of the HIV/AIDS Unit of Lawyer's Collective (India), and the former United Nations Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health (2008-2014). In his regular practice, Mr. Grover has argued several landmark cases in the field of public interest and human rights law, including mass eviction cases, environmental cases, and LGBT rights. Mr. Grover has also done innovative work in the field of patent law, opposing the grant of patents for essential life-saving drugs.

During his time as the UN Special Rapporteur he focused his reports to promote non-discrimination, empower vulnerable groups and ensure meaningful participation of affected communities.

Halfway to Graduation Party: Class of 2023

Believe it or not, the class of 2022 is halfway to law school graduation! We want to take time to celebrate all your accomplishments so far - we are proud of all you have done, and will continue to do, especially in challenging circumstances. We're looking forward to honoring your hard work with a well-deserved break.

To celebrate this milestone, the Office of Student Services and Advising is throwing a celebration on:

Monday, March 21st at 12pm EDT in the 3rd Floor Lounge.

Lunch will be served

We will be conducting several rounds of Trivia, with lots of prizes up for grabs. Play alongside your classmates and some of your professors.

Join us - All who attend receive a free limited-edition mystery merch item!

Make sure to come in time for congratulations from the Dean of Cardozo, Melanie Leslie, at 1pm.

 Please note the event is only open to 2Ls

Unified Writing Competition - for 1L Students

Following final exams, 1Ls who have completed their first full year of coursework can participate in the Unified Writing Competition (UWC). The UWC, in conjunction with class rankings and statements, will help determine placement on all five of Cardozo's journals, including the Cardozo Law Review. The Moot Court Honor Society and Alternative Dispute Resolution Competition Honor Society will not require UWC scores.

The Writing Competition is currently scheduled to take place on Monday, May 16 at 8AM New York City time through Wednesday, May 18 at 8PM New York City time. You may complete the materials from any location, but please be aware of your time zone. If you have any questions or concerns about your time zone, please contact writingcompetition@law.cardozo.yu.edu.

In preparation for the Writing Competition, we are hosting an Information Session. The Information Session will cover UWC critical dates, basic journal information, and competition tryout details.

Attendance at the Information Session is mandatory for 1Ls who wish to participate in the UWC, and attendance will be taken. If you cannot attend your designated session, please contact writingcompetition@law.cardozo.yu.edu and we will permit you to attend an alternate session or watch a recording that will be provided to you.

MANDATORY INFO SESSION:

Sections A, C, E:

Monday, March 21 at 12PM - 1:15PM in the Moot Court Room

Sections B, D, F:

Wednesday, March 23 at 12PM - 1:15PM in the Moot Court Room

Please note that besides attending the Information Session listed above, there is nothing else that students need to do to prepare for the UWC at this time.
