The Center for Rights and Justice invites you to

Shielded: How the Police Became Untouchable* Book Launch

Wednesday, March 1 at 6 p.m.
Jacob Burns Moot Court Room and via Zoom

Professor Alexander Reinert, Director of the Center for Rights and Justice will moderate a discussion on Shielded: How the Police Became Untouchable. He will be joined by the author, Joanna Schwartz, Professor of Law at the University of California, Los Angeles. Schwartz is one of the country's leading scholars on policing.

In Shielded, Schwartz explores how the legal system protects the police from being held accountable, with insightful analyses about subjects ranging from qualified immunity to no-knock warrants. By weaving true stories of people seeking restitution for violated rights, cutting across race, gender, criminal history, tax bracket, and zip code, Schwartz brings clarity to a problem that is widely known but little understood.

Books will be available for sale at the event and Professor Schwartz will sign books after the event. Light refreshments will be provided.
