Dean Melanie Leslie Appoints Professor Christine Kim to the Faculty

“It is my pleasure to welcome Christine Kim to our faculty. Her expertise in international tax law, technology, and complicated investment structures will be a tremendous addition to our strong program in taxation,” says Dean Melanie Leslie.

Professor Myriam Gilles Testifies About Forced Arbitration and Consumer Products Before Senate Committee

“Let’s let the consumer use their common sense about what they want to do after the fact— mediate, arbitrate or go to court about their claim,” Gilles says.

Floersheimer Center Panel Focuses on Former SCOTUS Clerks

Cardozo professors and former Supreme Court Clerks—Michael Herz, Deborah Pearlstein, Michael Pollack and Kate Shaw—joined Dean Melanie Leslie in discussion.

Professor Pamela Foohey Comments in Bloomberg Law on J&J Case

“The problem is that every committee that is appointed is a financial drain on the business, so there’s less money for everyone to go around,” Foohey says.

Professor Jessica Roth Speaks to The Wall Street Journal About Trial Over the Alleged Gretchen Whitmer Kidnap Plot

“It seems like there’s a constellation of problems with witnesses that does seem unusual put all together,” Roth says.
