CAMPUS NEWS

Professor Deborah Pearlstein Testifies on H.R. 1004

Professor Deborah Pearlstein testified in front of the U.S. House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee on March 13, regarding Congressman David N. Cicillin's bill to prohibit the use of unauthorized military force in Venezuela. "The President is in a different Constitutional position when Congress has affirmatively said 'not yet' or 'no' and that's the gear shift that this legislation would make," she said during her testimony.

Professor Stewart Sterk Talks about Partition Actions with NY1

Professor Stewart Sterk was interviewed by NY1 regarding partition actions, which have been making news in NY in recent days. "If one person has lived on the property for a long time, and has relied on it, we ought to be reluctant to have a sale that would dispossess that person from the property if there is a way of partitioning in kind and letting that person stay," said Professor Sterk.

Randi Weingarten '83, a Crusader in the Fight for Workers' Rights and President of the 1.7-million-member American Federation of Teachers, Talks of Her Passion for Public Service

Cardozo Women on the Rise in Real Estate

Three alumna real estate attorneys offered a penthouse view of their field: from high-end Las Vegas deals to navigating a male-dominated practice. Dean Melanie Leslie moderated the March 18 panel, which was co-sponsored by the Center for Real Estate Law & Policy and the Cardozo Real Estate Association.

Professor Jessica Roth Interviewed by Brian Williams on MSNBC

Professor Jessica Roth appeared on The 11th Hour with Brian Williams to discuss the latest developments in the Mueller investigation. Rick Gates, she said, "is the bridge between the different parts of the investigation...he would have been in a position to provide communications between the Trump campaign and Roger Stone."

FAME Center and Indie Film Clinic Host Rosenberg Film and Panel

The FAME Center and the Indie Film Clinic hosted a film screening and panel discussion on March 19, "Russian Spies or Political Scapegoats? The Trial and Execution of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg." Professor Richard H. Weisberg moderated a discussion with Robert Meeropol, one of the sons of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, and Lindsay Crouse, an actress who starred in the movie Daniel, which explores the trial and execution of the Rosenbergs.

ADR Teams Win at Home and Abroad

ADR Competition Honor Society students made their mark in recent weeks at several different competitions, both at home and abroad, as they competed in the Fordham National Basketball Negotiation Competition, the Regional ABA Representation in Mediation Competition, the Cardozo Intraschool Negotiation Competition and the INADR International Law School Mediation Tournament.

Professor Edward Zelinsky's Book is Quoted in 7th Circuit Ruling

The Seventh Circuit has ruled that Code Section 107(2) is constitutional, overturning Judge Barbara Crabb's 2017 ruling that the section violated the Establishment Clause. The 7th Circuit cites Professor Edward Zelinsky's book, "Taxing the Church" in upholding the constitutionality of the parsonage allowance. Forbes wrote an article about the decision.
