Upcoming Events and Announcements

This November please consider donating new or gently used coats (of any size) and toys to the Cardozo Law Review-, Cardozo MLSA-, Business Law Society-, and SBA-sponsored coat and toy drive! We will be accepting donations in the lobby, 3rd floor lounge, and SBA and Law Review (531) offices. All donations will be distributed during the holidays to needy residents of Mount Vernon, New York, one of NYC's largest and poorest "suburbs." Distribution will be handled by Balanced Life Christian Center, a local community church in Mount Vernon.

Individuals who drop off donations in the 3rd floor lounge during lunchtime next Tuesday (11/21), and the Monday (11/27) and Wednesday (11/29) after Thanksgiving will be entered into a raffle. If your club is interested in participating in gathering donations and possibly winning the prize or if you have any other questions, please reach out to Brian Gifford.

Join Cardozo's Federalist Society for a Town-Hall Debate on Wednesday, Nov. 29 @ 12 in room 424! The event will feature the Nevada Deputy Solicitor General, Joseph Tartakovsky (second panelist to be announced). Debate topics include the legal issues surrounding current immigration issues such as DACA, sanctuary cities, and the travel ban. Come ask your questions!

RSVP is preferred.
