The Floersheimer Center for Constitutional Democracy at Cardozo School of Law Presents

Why Florida Copied Its "Don't Say Gay" Bill from Hungary & What It Means for Democracy in the United States

NOVEMBER 1ST, 5 PM EST
MOOT COURT ROOM

RSVP REQUIRED

On the eve of elections in which polls find large majorities of Americans worried about the future of U.S. democracy, key factions here are championing the model of autocratic leaders abroad. Do once-democratic countries like Hungary offer American populists a meaningful roadmap for reforming the structures of U.S. democratic governance and constitutional law?

Join experts for a lively panel discussion and lobby reception.
