

CARDOZO
Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

LARC @ Cardozo Law

Cardozo Law News Brief 2021

Cardozo Law News Brief

3-19-2021

Cardozo Law News Brief: March 19, 2021

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/news-briefs-2021>

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, "Cardozo Law News Brief: March 19, 2021" (2021). Cardozo Law News Brief 2021. 12.

<https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/news-briefs-2021/12>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Cardozo Law News Brief at LARC @ Cardozo Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Cardozo Law News Brief 2021 by an authorized administrator of LARC @ Cardozo Law. For more information, please contact larc@yu.edu.

CARDOZO LAW

Cardozo Law News Brief

Spotlight on News from the Cardozo Community

In the News

Professor Ekow Yankah Joins Bloomberg Law's "Uncommon Law" Podcast to Discuss Difficulty of Chauvin Prosecution

"[T]here are a bunch of things a police officer can do to you because they're authorized, that would be criminal battery if anybody else did it," says Yankah.

Listen at 3:50

Professors Leslie Salzman and Rebekah Diller Write Op-Ed on Britney Spears and Conservatorships in Business Insider

"If everything else is tried and guardianship is still imposed, it should not be permanent but rather for a limited time period," write Salzman and Diller.

Read More

Professor Myriam Gilles Weighs In On Forced Arbitration in the Los Angeles Times

Forced arbitration “reduces [companies’] liability costs by a significant sum” and allows them to indulge in untoward behavior “without real fear of legal repercussions,” says Gilles.

Read More

Professor Rebecca Ingber Pens Op-Ed on Use of Force Abroad in Just Security Journal

"We now appear to be sliding into war even if unintentionally, one legally-rationalized strike at a time," writes Ingber.

Ingber will testify about war powers before the House Rules Committee on March 23.

Read More

Professor Alex Reinert Considers Qualified Immunity in Lawfare Blog Essay

"Broadly, qualified immunity can bar a damages remedy in civil rights cases even when plaintiffs can establish that their constitutional rights were violated," writes Reinert.

Read More

Professor Ed Stein Discusses Polyamorous Relationships and Family Norms with The New Yorker

The New Yorker takes a look at how parallel campaigns for legal recognition may soon make multiple-partner marriages as unremarkable as same-sex marriages.

Read More

Bella Pori '21 Receives 2021 Paris Baldacci Scholarship for Outstanding Student Work on LGBT Rights

"I'm honored to have been awarded the Paris Baldacci scholarship. Professor Baldacci brought so much to Cardozo through both his work as a clinical professor and by being a positive openly gay role model for the students he taught and those he did not," says Pori.

Read More

Dean Melanie Leslie Appoints Rachel McNassor Associate Dean of Advancement

McNassor is an experienced advancement professional with an impressive track record of fundraising successes. She has worked at Yeshiva University since 2019 in posts of increasing responsibility, which will help build institutional cohesion for growth.

Read More

- Justice Rosalie Silberman Abella of the Supreme Court of Canada will deliver the virtual keynote commencement speech for the Class of 2021.
- Professor Michelle Adams joined the Strict Scrutiny podcast to discuss Netflix docuseries "Amend: The Fight for America."
- Professor Ngozi Okidegbe will present Discredited Data at Yale Law School Information Society Project's lunch speaker series on March 25.
- Professor Tony Sebok spoke to Law360 on what law firm ownership would look like if regulations were wiped and the industry had the opportunity to start over from scratch. Read on Lexis+.
- Professor Aaron Wright spoke to Decrypt on non-fungible tokens (NFTs).

Events

Heyman Center presents In-House: The Role of General Counsel

Wednesday, March 24 at 12 p.m.

Register

Diamond Anniversary: 75 Years of the Lanham (Trademark) Act

Wednesday, March 24 at 2 p.m.

Sponsored by AELJ, FAME and IPLS.

Register

FAME and Retail & Luxury Alumni Group Presents Negotiating Social Media Influencer Agreements – A View from Both Sides of the Table

Thursday, March 25 at 1 p.m.

Register

Inaugural Jacob Burns Center Award for Professional Courage

Friday, March 26 at 12 p.m.

The first recipient of this award will be Aaron Van Langevelde, who was, until January 2021, the Vice Chair of the Michigan's Board of State Canvassers.