CICLR SPRING 2022 SYMPOSIUM

The Cardozo International & Comparative Law Review is pleased to host a virtual symposium on Friday, April 8th, from 1:00 to 2:30 pm (EST) to discuss women's role in the judiciary. Panelists will discuss the importance of women's representation in the judiciary and explain why increased diversity within the judiciary helps to promote the rule of law. When the judiciary reflects the society it is intended to serve, can judicial independence, impartiality, and integrity be restored? What other factors are necessary to achieving a fair system of justice and legitimacy? Panelists will address the obstacles to women's full and equal participation in the judiciary and analyze whether reform can effectuate change.

Join us for a virtual panel with Commissioner Doreen B. Boxer, Los Angeles Superior Court Commissioner; Judge Vanessa Ruiz, Senior Judge of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals; Judge Keshia Tanabe, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Minnesota; Judge Francisca Zapata, Judge of First Pre-Trial Tribunal in Santiago, Chile; Judge Anja Popović Zrelec, Judge in the Higher Court in Belgrade, Appellate Criminal Division; moderated by Dean Melanie Leslie.

Note on CLE credit: This online event is approved for 1.5 transitional/non-transitional New York State CLE credits in the category "Diversity, Inclusion and Elimination of Bias." You must attend the "live" program in order to receive CLE credits. We cannot award CLE credits for watching a recorded version of this program.

Please direct all questions to Cameron Kellett.

Cardozo Law Review presents

JOURNAL WEEK

SAVE THE DATES! From Monday, April 11th to Friday, April 15th, the Cardozo Law Review will be hosting Journal Week in preparation for next month's Writing Competition. The scheduled events are designed to expose 1L students to the work of all the Cardozo Law journals and to provide an introduction to the relevant Bluebook rules. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the "How to Use the Bluebook" workshops and the "Anonymity Protocols" session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo's print journals will result in an applicant's immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.
