

CARDOZO

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

LARC @ Cardozo Law

Today at Cardozo 2021

Today at Cardozo

4-5-2021

Week of April 5, 2021 - April 9, 2021

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/today-at-cardozo-2021>

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, "Week of April 5, 2021 - April 9, 2021" (2021). Today at Cardozo 2021. 13.

<https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/today-at-cardozo-2021/13>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Today at Cardozo at LARC @ Cardozo Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Today at Cardozo 2021 by an authorized administrator of LARC @ Cardozo Law. For more information, please contact larc@yu.edu.

Today At Cardozo

Monday, April 5th, 2021

CICLR Spring 2021 Symposium: Is censorship necessary to protect democracy?

The Cardozo International & Comparative Law Review is pleased to host a virtual symposium on Monday, April 5, from 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm EST to discuss the issue of rising offensive speech. This symposium will focus on the different approaches in legislating hate speech in the United States and Europe and their consequences. Panelists will address the possible circumstances whereby offensive speech ought to be prohibited. Should governments control or ban speech that “incites religious and ethnic hatred?” And if private entities like Twitter are not subject to First Amendment regulation, what legal obligations (if any) should rest with social media companies regarding censoring private expression that advocates hate or endorses physical violence?

Join us for a virtual panel with Kate Ruane, senior legislative counsel with the American Civil Liberties Union; Richard Ashby Wilson, Associate Dean of Research at the University of Connecticut School of Law; Nadine Strossen, the John Marshall Harlan II Professor Emerita at New York Law School; Clay Calvert, Professor of Law and Director of the Marion B. Brechner First Amendment Project at the University of Florida; moderated by Deborah Pearlstein, Professor of Law and Co-Director of the Floersheimer Center for Constitutional Democracy at Cardozo Law School.

Contact: Victoria Stierli de Abreu, Cardozo International & Comparative Law Symposia Editor.

The Cardozo Student Mentors are recruiting
May Students to become May Mentors!

We are looking for individuals who demonstrate an eagerness to help students reach their potential, are passionate about Cardozo, and are committed to the Mentor Program's future. Mentors are expected to serve as resources for their mentees and help ease their transition into law school.

The application deadline is
Friday, April 9, 2021.

Cardozo Law Review presents
Journal Week
Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo's journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the "How to Use the Bluebook" workshops and Friday's "Anonymity Protocols" session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo's print journals will result in an applicant's immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Monday, April 5, 2021

"Life of an Article"

From 4-5PM on Zoom

Event Name: What's Going On in Israel? A Discussion with Rudy Rochman

Date: April 5th at 12:00 pm EST

Zoom Link Below

Meeting ID: 880 6938 4687 Passcode: JLSA

Club: JLSA

Description: Join us for a discussion with noted Israeli rights activist Rudy Rochman. Rudy will discuss current events in Israel as well as the Israeli-Palestinian conflict generally and how the two sides can work together to live in harmony.

Upcoming Events and Announcements

Race & Evidence: Beyond Neutrality

Presented by: Cardozo NLG

Tuesday, April 6 @ 6PM EST via Zoom

Register Below

Description:

Evidence law -- as a body of rules that govern admissibility -- purports itself to be a system whose precepts are race neutral. But this is far from the case.

Cardozo NLG is proud to present a powerful panel of three lauded evidence scholars whose work challenges probes the issue of how race is inextricable from the facially-neutral propositions that undergird evidence law and how these consequences play out in courtrooms and the carceral system.

Join Professors Bennett Capers (Fordham), Andrea Dennis (UGA), and Jasmine Gonzales Rose (BU) as they guide us through some of their most critical claims against evidence law followed by a guided discussion and Q+A. Learn more about these scholars below.

The panel will be moderated by Cardozo's own Professor Ngozi Okidegbe.

Dean Melanie Leslie '91 invites you to

A Conversation with

Bess Chiu '09

Chief of Staff

Office of the Counsel to the Mayor of New York City

Wednesday, April 14, 2021

12 - 1 p.m.

Advance Registration Required

Bess Chiu joined the Administration in 2014 and previously served as Associate Counsel to the Mayor and Managing Counsel. In her current role, she works with senior policymakers in City Hall and across city government to provide oversight and guidance to critical projects including the City's ongoing response to the COVID-19 pandemic. A lifelong New Yorker, and an experienced public interest lawyer, she has also served as an attorney with the City's Administration for Children's Services, where she prosecuted child abuse and neglect cases. During this event, Bess will speak about her career responsibilities in public service and the path that led to her current position.

Title: The 9th Annual Cardozo Sports Law Symposium

Date and Time: April 7, 2021, at 6:00pm EST

Sponsoring SBA Group: Cardozo Sports Law Society and FAME Center

Summary: The Cardozo Sports Law Society and FAME Center are honored to have Courtney Hall speak at the 9th Annual Cardozo Sports Law Symposium about his fascinating career and how sports, law, data and business can intersect in today's modern world.

Link to Attend: distributed when you register for the event

Cardozo Law Review presents

Journal Week

Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo's journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the "How to Use the Bluebook" workshops and Friday's "Anonymity Protocols" session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo's print journals will result in an applicant's immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Tuesday, April 6, 2021

"How to Use the Bluebook" Workshop (Part I): 5-6PM

Spotlight: Journal of Conflict Resolution

Paid to Play: College Athletes Face Off with the NCAA in the High Court

Date: Tuesday, April 6th, 2021

Time: 5:00 - 6:15 p.m.

The Antitrust Society, along with the Heyman Center, the Sports Law Society, the Employment Law Society, and the Business Law society, are proud to present this amazing event. This panel will explore the unique space in the antitrust laws that the sports industry has occupied and discuss the current NCAA v. Alston case pending before SCOTUS, which centers around the NCAA's internal rules that prohibit colleges from paying student athletes any amount above the cost of attending the school. This is a truly interesting case that sits at the cross section between antitrust law, sports law, and employment law.

Speakers:

Hiba Hafiz, Professor of Law at Boston College Law School

Glen Nager, Of Counsel at Jones Day

Josh Mendelsohn, Senior Labor Counsel for SAG-AFTRA
Daniel Lust, Attorney at Geragos & Geragos

Feel free to access the event through the link below. Or feel free to use the access code:

If you'd like a Google Calendar Zoom invite, you can send us an email and we will send one directly to you.

ADR Competition Honor Society Tryouts Info Session #2

Wednesday, April 7, 4-5 pm via Zoom

Do you have a tryout coming up on or after April 11th for the ADR Competition Honor Society? Come to our second info session to learn more about ADR, the tryout process and get your questions answered. Attendance is strongly encouraged if you did not have a chance to attend the first info session over Spring Break. If you cannot attend, please see the Writing Competition Canvas page for the recording from the first info session.

Title of Event: Cardozo's FIRE Immigration Career Panel with Recent Grad

Sponsoring Groups: For Immigrants' Rights & Equality (FIRE)

Description: Interested in pursuing a career in immigration? Want to know how to make the best of your time in law school? Want to learn more about what pre and post-grad opportunities are available to you? Come join recent grads who can tell you the ins and outs of pursuing a career in immigration law! The event will feature alumni from organizations including my Sisters' Place Inc., the Legal Aid Society, and the International Refugee Assistance Project.

Date and time: Tuesday, April 6 at 7 PM

Today At Cardozo

Tuesday, April 6th, 2021

Race & Evidence: Beyond Neutrality

Presented by: Cardozo NLG

Tuesday, April 6 @ 6PM EST via Zoom

Register Below

Description:

Evidence law -- as a body of rules that govern admissibility -- purports itself to be a system whose precepts are race neutral. But this is far from the case.

Cardozo NLG is proud to present a powerful panel of three lauded evidence scholars whose work challenges probes the issue of how race is inextricable from the facially-neutral propositions that undergird evidence law and how these consequences play out in courtrooms and the carceral system.

Join Professors Bennett Capers (Fordham), Andrea Dennis (UGA), and Jasmine Gonzales Rose (BU) as they guide us through some of their most critical claims against evidence law followed by a guided discussion and Q+A. Learn more about these scholars below.

The panel will be moderated by Cardozo's own Professor Ngozi Okidegbe.

Cardozo Law Review presents
Journal Week
Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo's journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the "How to Use the Bluebook" workshops and Friday's "Anonymity Protocols" session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo's print journals will result in an applicant's immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Tuesday, April 6, 2021

"How to Use the Bluebook" Workshop (Part I): 5-6PM

Spotlight: Journal of Conflict Resolution

Paid to Play: College Athletes Face Off with the NCAA in the High Court

Date: Tuesday, April 6th, 2021

Time: 5:00 - 6:15 p.m.

The Antitrust Society, along with the Heyman Center, the Sports Law Society, the Employment Law Society, and the Business Law society, are proud to present this amazing event. This panel will explore the unique space in the antitrust laws that the sports industry has occupied and discuss the current NCAA v. Alston case pending before SCOTUS, which centers around the NCAA's internal rules that prohibit colleges from paying student athletes any amount above the cost of attending the school. This is a truly interesting case that sits at the cross section between antitrust law, sports law, and employment law.

Speakers:

Hiba Hafiz, Professor of Law at Boston College Law School
Glen Nager, Of Counsel at Jones Day
Josh Mendelsohn, Senior Labor Counsel for SAG-AFTRA
Daniel Lust, Attorney at Geragos & Geragos

Feel free to access the event through the link below. Or feel free to use the access code:

If you'd like a Google Calendar Zoom invite, you can send us an email and we will send one directly to you.

Title of Event: Cardozo's FIRE Immigration Career Panel with Recent Grad

Sponsoring Groups: For Immigrants' Rights & Equality (FIRE)

Description: Interested in pursuing a career in immigration? Want to know how to make the best of your time in law school? Want to learn more about what pre and post-grad opportunities are available to you? Come join recent grads who can tell you the ins and outs of pursuing a career in immigration law! The event will feature alumni from organizations including my Sisters' Place Inc., the Legal Aid Society, and the International Refugee Assistance Project.

Date and time: Tuesday, April 6 at 7 PM

Upcoming Events and Announcements

Cardozo Law Review presents

Journal Week

Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo's journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the "How to Use the Bluebook" workshops and Friday's "Anonymity Protocols" session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo's print journals will result in an applicant's immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Wednesday, April 7, 2021

"How to Use the Bluebook" Workshop (Part II): 3:30-4:30PM

Spotlight: Journal of Equal Rights and Social Justice

Today At Cardozo

Wednesday, April 7th, 2021

Title: The 9th Annual Cardozo Sports Law Symposium

Date and Time: April 7, 2021, at 6:00pm EST

Sponsoring SBA Group: Cardozo Sports Law Society and FAME Center

Summary: The Cardozo Sports Law Society and FAME Center are honored to have Courtney Hall speak at the 9th Annual Cardozo Sports Law Symposium about his fascinating career and how sports, law, data and business can intersect in today's modern world.

Link to Attend: distributed when you register for the event

Cardozo Law Review presents

Journal Week

Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo's journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the “How to Use the Bluebook” workshops and Friday’s “Anonymity Protocols” session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo’s print journals will result in an applicant’s immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Wednesday, April 7, 2021

"How to Use the Bluebook" Workshop (Part II): 3:30-4:30PM

Spotlight: Journal of Equal Rights and Social Justice

ADR Competition Honor Society Tryouts Info Session #2

Wednesday, April 7, 4-5 pm via Zoom

Do you have a tryout coming up on or after April 11th for the ADR Competition Honor Society? Come to our second info session to learn more about ADR, the tryout process and get your questions answered. Attendance is strongly encouraged if you did not have a chance to attend the first info session over Spring Break. If you cannot attend, please see the Writing Competition Canvas page for the recording from the first info session.

'Real Estate Lawyers: In-House and Outside Counsel - What's the Difference?'

Date and Time:
Wednesday, April 7 from 6-7 pm

Sponsoring SBA Group:
Real Estate Law Association

Please join RELA for an exciting conversation on the differences between practicing as in-house counsel versus outside counsel with Joanne D. C. Foley, General Counsel and Managing Director at Equity Resource Investments.

The Cardozo Federalist Society Presents: Section 230

A Brief Explainer and Discussion on it's Future. This event brings experts Matthew Feeney and Jennifer Huddleston to Cardozo to speak about Section 230, the legal challenges it is facing, and the effects of these challenges if they are successful. Ms. Huddleston is the Director of Technology & Innovation Policy at the American Action Forum. Mr. Feeney is the Director of the Cato Institute's Project on Emerging Technologies.

Join us April 7, 2021, at Noon

Upcoming Events and Announcements

Cardozo Law Review presents

Journal Week

Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo's journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the "How to Use the Bluebook" workshops and Friday's "Anonymity Protocols" session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo's print journals will result in an applicant's immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Thursday, April 8, 2021

"Journals Panel": 7-8PM

Panelists from Cardozo's five journals will share their perspectives about their various journal experiences.

Spotlight: International and Comparative Law Review

Barbri Bar Prep: Virtual Table

Hi friends & colleagues! Barbri is hosting another virtual table where we will demonstrate the Barbri courses, including the Bar Review Course! Join us anytime on Thursday, Apr. 8 from 11am-4pm using this link. Teddy Hook (Barbri Director of Legal Education) and several classmates will be available as a resource for you, so feel free to ask questions about the Bar, MPRE, NYLE or any other review questions you may have!

Class Resources: Don't miss out on our FREE resources including outlines, review questions, and videos!

Enrollment: If you're ready to enroll, do so HERE.

Bill Firm: If you have a firm covering the cost of your course, you can still bill directly to that firm HERE.

Social: Be sure to follow Barbri on Facebook and Twitter for more information on Barbri deals and study tips!

Zoom Office Hours: If you have any lingering questions or can't make the table time, feel free to come chat with Teddy Hook, the Cardozo Barbri Director, via zoom.

100 Days of Dissent: Unpacking the Ongoing Indian Farmers' Protests April 12, 12:00PM ET

For months, Indian farmers have been protesting, building a resistance movement against harmful agricultural law reforms that seek to strip them of essential protections and open the door to multinational agribusiness investment. The new laws will make farmers' goods vulnerable to private traders, essentially leaving them unprotected under a free market mechanism. These actions have caused a strong mobilization of opposition with millions of farmers concerned that their livelihoods are at risk as they will lose their ability to provide for their families. Many farmers are also members of the Sikh/Punjabi community and have been targets of violence and discriminatory laws. CLIHHR's discussion with Vinay Sreenivasa, community attorney/advocate with the Alternative Law Forum, will focus on the agricultural reform laws, the laws' impact on human rights, and how the laws are a continuation of discrimination against the Sikh/Punjabi minority community in India.

Speakers

Vinay Sreenivasa is a community attorney/advocate with the Alternative Law Forum. His areas of interests include Urban Transport, Urban Poverty, Informal Sectors and Urban Governance. He has also been part of initiatives promoting Free and Open Source Software in the government. Vinay holds an engineering degree and was in the IT industry until 2007. His research and reflections have been shared across multiple media outlets. Vinay's recent article in the 'Logical Indian' spotlights how India's farm laws may lead to the collapse of the sector that is already in a precarious situation.

Ramya Jawahar Kudekallu is Visiting Instructor of Clinical Law at Cardozo's Benjamin B. Ferencz Human Rights and Atrocity Prevention Clinic and CLIHHR's Telford Taylor Teaching Fellow. Her work focuses on the rights of minorities and atrocity prevention through international intervention. In 2018, Ramya graduated from Fordham School of Law with an LLM in International Law and Justice. Later that year, she secured the Crowley Fellowship with the Leitner Center for International Law. She has taught a Human Rights Scholarship class and has conducted research on labor, gender-based discrimination and access to justice.

The BALLSA Alumni Group and the Office of Diversity & Inclusion invite you to join a discussion that will address what we need do to stop this virus called RACISM.

Stop Asian Hate: Time for Facts, Not Fear

Monday, April 26, 2021

12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

Since Donald Trump called COVID-19 the "China virus" and the "Kung Fu" virus, hate crimes against Asian Americans have increased by 150%. More than 3,800 cases have been reported since March of 2020. Asian Americans have historically been silenced or held as "model immigrants". The discrimination they face has often been erased from American history. This must stop. The discussion will focus on the historical facts of Asian American discrimination in light of the current wave of anti-Asian American hate crimes.

Speakers

Katherine J. Hwang '09
The Law Firm of Katherine J Hwang

Hana Kim
Attorney, New York City Commission on Human Rights

Moderator

Bobby Codjoe
Director of Diversity & Inclusion, Cardozo School of Law

Divestment discussion by Cardozo Environmental Law Society
Thursday, April 8 @ 6 pm

Join us for a 15 minute documentary and student-led discussion on what divestment from fossil fuels is, how we are impacted, other university success stories and where Cardozo stands on its investments!

Please join WLI for our Annual Spring Reception and Awards Dinner celebrating "The Roaring Twenties: A New Decade of Women in Activism" on Thursday April 8th at 6:30pm. We will be honoring a Cardozo alumna, a Cardozo Professor, and acknowledging the activism in the Cardozo Community. Join us and Dean Leslie in toasting the accomplishments and work of our peers.

Today At Cardozo

Thursday, April 8th, 2021

Cardozo Law Review presents
Journal Week
Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo’s journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the “How to Use the Bluebook” workshops and Friday’s “Anonymity Protocols” session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo’s print journals will result in an applicant’s immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Thursday, April 8, 2021
"Journals Panel": 7-8PM

Panelists from Cardozo's five journals will share their perspectives about their various journal experiences.

Spotlight: International and Comparative Law Review

|

Barbri Bar Prep: Virtual Table

Hi friends & colleagues! Barbri is hosting another virtual table where we will demonstrate the Barbri courses, including the Bar Review Course! Join us anytime on Thursday, Apr. 8 from 11am-4pm using this link. Teddy Hook (Barbri Director of Legal Education) and several classmates will be available as a resource for you, so feel free to ask questions about the Bar, MPRE, NYLE or any other review questions you may have!

Class Resources: Don't miss out on our FREE resources including outlines, review questions, and videos! For access to the 1L Mastery program, click HERE. For access to our Upper-Level resources, click HERE.

Enrollment: If you're ready to enroll, do so HERE.

Bill Firm: If you have a firm covering the cost of your course, you can still bill directly to that firm HERE.

Social: Be sure to follow Barbri on Facebook and Twitter for more information on Barbri deals and study tips!

Zoom Office Hours: If you have any lingering questions or can't make the table time, feel free to come chat with Teddy Hook, the Cardozo Barbri Director, via zoom.

Divestment discussion by Cardozo Environmental Law Society
Thursday, April 8 @ 6 pm

Join us for a 15 minute documentary and student-led discussion on what divestment from fossil fuels is, how we are impacted, other university success stories and where Cardozo stands on its investments!

Please join WLI for our Annual Spring Reception and Awards Dinner celebrating "The Roaring Twenties: A New Decade of Women in Activism" on Thursday April 8th at 6:30pm. We will be honoring a Cardozo alumna, a Cardozo Professor, and acknowledging the activism in the Cardozo Community. Join us and Dean Leslie in toasting the accomplishments and work of our peers.

Cardozo Parity Project is hosting a Social Justice Trivia Night
Thursday, April 8, 2021, at 5:30pm.

Zoom link below
Meeting ID: 824 2430 1627
Passcode: parity

Cardozo Parity Project is hosting a social justice trivia night this Thursday, April 8 at 5:30 PM EST. We'll have lots of fun questions about the workers' rights, reproductive rights, and justice in our pop culture as well as the federal courts.

As gift prizes, we will be sponsoring meals/products from your favorite local restaurants/small businesses.

Come one, come all

Event: Crown Jewels: The Power of Licensing and Collaborations in Fashion and Entertainment

Date & Time: April 8th at 6:30pm

Description : Join the Cardozo FAME Center, the Fashion Law Society, and the Entertainment Law Society to discuss the unique landscapes that define the fashion and entertainment industries and how they continue to evolve. For decades, the business of licensing and strategic collaborations steadfastly remains a cornerstone in each. Our panel of experts will discuss how their clients and companies exploit this prosperous enterprise to achieve market power and brand value.

Jay Dubiner, General Counsel, Authentic Brands Group

Avery Fischer, EVP and General Counsel, Ralph Lauren

Marc Lieberstein '92, Partner, Kilpatrick Townsend LLP

Micheal Neuman '07, Vice President, Legal Affairs, Marquee Brands

Ricardo Yoselevitz '08, Vice President, Brand Partnerships and Business Development, IMG

Moderated by: Sherry Jetter, Professor, Cardozo School of Law

Sponsoring Organizations: FAME Center, Fashion Law Society, and Entertainment Law Society

Upcoming Events and Announcements

Cardozo Law Review presents

Journal Week

Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo's journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the "How to Use the Bluebook" workshops and Friday's "Anonymity Protocols" session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo's print journals will result in an applicant's immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Friday, April 9, 2021

"Anonymity Protocols: A Step-by-Step Guide to Removing Identifying Information": 3-3:15PM

"CLR Equity & Inclusion Committee Panel": 3:15-4PM

"Journal Office Hours & Happy Hour": 4-5PM

Framing Britney Spears: Adult Guardianship and an Artist's Control Over Her Work

What's a guardianship/conservatorship and how can a leading star in the music business be under a court order that doesn't let her make personal and financial decisions for herself? This panel focuses on the case of Britney Spears, its implications for disability rights, and the questions it raises about artists' control over their work.

Monday, April 12th at 6:30 pm

Panelists

Liz Day, New York Times senior editor and co-creator of Framing Britney Spears, the recent documentary on Hulu.

Zoe Brennan-Krohn, Staff Attorney, ACLU Disability Rights Program

Rebekah Diller, Clinical Professor of Law and Co-Director of Bet Tzedek Civil Litigation Clinic

Michelle Greenberg-Kobrin, Clinical Associate Professor of Law and Director of Filmmakers Legal Clinic

Moderated by Leslie Salzman, Clinical Professor of Law and Co-Director of the Bet Tzedek Civil Litigation Clinic

Register Below

Sponsored by the Fame Center, the Bet Tzedek Civil Litigation Clinic and the Filmmakers Legal Clinic

Make Sure You Are Prepared for Exams

Join Student Services' Examssoft Session

Monday, April 12, 2021 at 12 PM EDT

Please go to Luminis --> Exam Tab --> Exam Information to review the Frequently Asked Questions, Exam Memo, and Examssoft Instructions.

This session is optional but highly recommended. A recording will be posted to Luminis afterwards.

Today At Cardozo

Friday, April 9th, 2021

Cardozo Law Review presents
Journal Week
Monday, April 5, 2021 - Friday, April 9, 2021

Journal Week is a five-day event designed to expose 1L students to the work of Cardozo’s journals and to provide an introduction to the Bluebook rules relevant for the Writing Competition. Rising 3Ls who intend to compete in the August Writing Competition are invited to partake in Journal Week as well.

While attendance at these sessions is optional, students are especially encouraged to attend the “How to Use the Bluebook” workshops and Friday’s “Anonymity Protocols” session. Please note that failure to preserve anonymity in submissions to Cardozo’s print journals will result in an applicant’s immediate disqualification from the Writing Competition.

Video recordings of these sessions will be available for students unable to attend.

Friday, April 9, 2021

“Anonymity Protocols: A Step-by-Step Guide to Removing Identifying Information”: 3-3:15PM

"CLR Equity & Inclusion Committee Panel": 3:15-4PM

"Journal Office Hours & Happy Hour": 4-5PM

The Entrepreneurial Attorney: Key Career-Building Considerations
Cardozo Law Review Panel on Business Development for Attorneys

April 9, 2021

12:00 p.m. - 1:15 p.m. EST

Cardozo Law Review is excited to host a diverse panel of practitioners from various areas within the legal industry for a discussion about business development for attorneys. The panelists will reflect on their own journeys and advise law students and attorneys on how they can help develop their careers by being conscious of business development skills, skills which are often overlooked in the law school curriculum.

We anticipate insight and perspective on a variety of topics, including effective means for bringing in business, how social media has changed the way attorneys seek business, how to build relationships with clients, how young attorneys can maximize their personal skill sets, and a few other topics our panelists will cover relating to business development. Essentially, the main theme the panelists will grapple with is what law students and attorneys should be focusing on to create value, regardless of whether they join an established firm or start their own practice.

Panelists:

Stephanie Everett: President, Lawyerist

Phillip C. Hamilton '09: Partner, Hamilton Clarke, LLP

Moshe Horn '93: Partner, Gitlin, Horn & Van de Kieft LLP

Marc L. Mukasey '93: Partner, Mukasey Frenchman LLP

If you have any questions about this event, feel free to contact Eli Yampel, Symposia Editor for Volume 42 of Cardozo Law Review.

Upcoming Events and Announcements

The past year has been extremely difficult for everyone. The Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community especially has faced a horrifying surge of violence. During this time, there were nearly 4,000 anti-Asian hate incidents reported to Stop AAPI Hate.

Xenophobia and racism against Asian Americans can be traced back to the late 19th and early 20th centuries, when anti-Asian sentiment was fueled by economic downturn, war, and disease. That history includes: the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882; the detention of Japanese Americans during WW2; blaming the declining US auto industry in the 1980s on Asian Americans that led to the death of Vincent Chin; and attacking South Asian Americans, Muslim Americans, and Middle Eastern Americans after 9/11. What has happened and continues to happen is unacceptable. It must stop. Please join Cardozo APALSA on April 13, 2021, at 6:30PM for a panel discussing the rise of violence towards the AAPI community as well as how we can move forward while raising awareness about these issues.

The discussion will be moderated by our very own Dean of Students, Jenn Kim.

The esteemed panelists include Assistant Professor at The New School for Public Engagement, Professor Lei Ping; Board Member and Chair of AABANY Issues Committee, Chris M. Kwok, Esq.; and OCA-GH Organizer and Programs Associate, Audrey Pan."

Cardozo International Law Society
General Body Meeting
Monday, April 12 at 12 pm