Professor Betsy Ginsberg's Case Representing Incarcerated People Profiled in Law360

Professor Betsy Ginsberg continues the quest to get her clients released from Metropolitan Detention Center. Law360 reported, "Ginsberg also took pains to point out that Beard did not dispute several key contentions in the inmates' lawsuit, including the fact that sick call requests were ignored by medical staff and the paper records of those requests were destroyed, resulting in delayed and inadequate care."

Professor Christopher Buccafusco Comments on 3M Case in Bloomberg Law

Professor Christopher Buccafusco told Bloomberg Law, regarding the 3M trademark suit, that in many cases, those being sued by 3M haven't responded at all and 3M has been counting on that. "The company expected that those being sued are saying to themselves, 'we don't want to be the people to stand up for our right to engage in price-gouging,'" Buccafusco said.
