PUPPIES ON CAMPUS. Enough said.

Therapy dogs will be here to help us all de-stress on April 23rd from 12-1 pm in the 5th Floor Faculty Lounge (same time and location both days)!

Join Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust and Human Rights (CLIHHR) for a panel event "The Uses of Truth: Truth Commissions Archives, Justice and the Search for the Disappeared in El Salvador" on (Monday) April 23, 2018 from 6-8pm in the 3rd floor lounge. Reception to follow!

Falling on the heels of the UN Day on the Right to Truth and the 25th Anniversary of the El Salvador Truth Commission, CLIHHR is hosting a panel event to draw attention to the role that truth commission archives play as a potential source of information for justice and the search for those forcibly disappeared in times of conflict or oppression. The panel will discuss historical decisions about access to truth commission archives in light of evolving standards on the right to truth, accountability, and justice. In addition, panelists will talk about the specific potential of El Salvador's Truth Commission archives and how they can contribute to the search for the disappeared.

Panelists:

Eduardo Gonzalez Cueva, Transitional Justice Consultant

Trudy Peterson, Certified Archivist

Kate Doyle, Senior Analyst of U.S. policy in Latin America, National Security Archive

Benjamin Cuellar, Salvadoran Human Rights Activist

Leonor Arteaga, Senior Program Officer, Due Process of Law Foundation, U.S/ El Salvador

Moderated by: Jocelyn Getgen Kestenbaum, Faculty Director, Cardozo Law Institute of Holocaust and Human Rights

Take a break from all that studying and outlining and join the South Asian Law Student Association for a study break! Coffee, tea, and desserts will be served.

It will be held on April 23rd from 1-2:30 pm in 5SEM.

JLSA General Body Meeting
