Start your celebration of Constitution Day at Cardozo Law a day early with lunch & a book talk by Professor Burt Neuborne of NYU Law, who will discuss his new book in conversation with Cardozo Professors Jessica Roth & Michael Pollack.

Date: Monday, September 16, 2019
Time: 12:00 - 1:30 p.m.
Location: Third Floor Lounge

Lunch will be served!

Professor Burt Neuborne is one of the nation's foremost civil liberties scholars and lawyers. Over the years, he has challenged the constitutionality of the Vietnam War, worked on the Pentagon Papers case, partnered with Justice Ginsburg on women's rights, and served as legal director at the ACLU and the Brennan Center. His latest work examines the different "constitutional brakes" built into our democracy and how well they are resisting current pressures. We will have limited copies of Neuborne's book for sale, and a book signing will follow the discussion.

Upcoming Events and Announcements

Next week is SPIRIT WEEK at Cardozo! We are taking the week to celebrate our community, some of the things that connect us and the spirit of Cardozo.

On Monday, we kick off with Section Spirit! Regardless of what level you are, represent your 1L section (or LLM section) with the assigned clothing color. Faculty and staff are participating as well. If any section A folks are available at 10:00 am on Monday, Dean Leslie wants a Section A photo in the lobby - she was also section A in her first year at Cardozo! If other sections want a photo op with Dean Leslie, she is happy to oblige. Just come on down to the lobby. She will be there from 10-10:25am. Come to the 3rd Floor Hallway to enjoy a sweet treat and a giveaway starting at 12pm.

Tuesday is the day we will all celebrate our undergrad alma maters! It is also Constitution Day so look for fun events in the building all day.

Wednesday is Cardozo Spirit Day so get ready to wear your Cardozo gear! The first 100 people to come to Room 1044 in your Cardozo Gear (starting at 9am) will receive a special prize. It is also Giving Day so there will be events all day in the lobby.

Last but not least, Thursday is Team Spirit Day! Rep your favorite team and stop by the Law Library for giveaways and activities!
