With final exams only 1 week away, the Office of Student Services and Advising wanted to wish you good luck with a free gift bag of pre-exam goodies. Join us in the lobby on TODAY, Monday, April 25th from 12pm to 2pm to grab a gift bag and say hello before we break for the final exam period. Come by to ask questions or say hi.

The Student Services team is here to continue to support you throughout the semester and final exams, so please visit Cardozo Student Affairs if you would like to discuss study habits (including time management), review practice problems, or receive academic support

Post-Graduate Fellowship Info Session

Wednesday, April 27, 12 pm, Hybrid: Room 9sem (936) & Zoom

Think you might be interested in pursuing a postgraduate fellowship in public interest? It is never too early to start thinking about your postgraduate plans, and if you are graduating by May 2023, some application periods for postgraduate fellowships will open over the next few months, with deadlines in the early Fall. Join us to hear about incredible opportunities to begin your public interest career!

We'll focus on postgraduate fellowships in which candidates design their own projects and select a host organization, such as Equal Justice Works, Skadden, and Justice Catalyst. We will also learn about opportunities with Immigrant Justice Corps. The following program representatives and Cardozo alums will be joining to share insight about the application process and programs:

- Aoife Delargy Lowe, VP Law School Engagement & Advocacy, Equal Justice Works
- Maria Garcia Syngros '22, Equal Justice Works Fellow, EJW Class of 2022
 - Yael Ben Tov '20, Equal Justice Works Fellow, EJW Class of 2020
 - Livia Fry, Fellowship Manager, Immigrant Justice Corps
- Andrea Barrientos '21, Immigrant Justice Corp Fellow, IJC Class of 2021
 - Kathleen Rubenstein, Executive Director, Skadden Foundation
 - Jacob Lipton, Associate Director, Justice Catalyst

- Stephanie Alvarez-Jones '18, Former Justice Catalyst Fellow
