You're Invited: Dean Melanie Leslie's Office Hours

Wednesday, March 15

Noon - 1:15 p.m.

Room 1008

Join Dean Leslie, Professor Young Ran (Christine) Kim and Professor Luís Calderón Gómez to learn more about Cardozo's tax law program from our two newest tax law professors or use this opportunity to ask the Dean about anything on your mind.

Lunch will be served.

Professor Kim is ranked as the 16th most downloaded tax professor of January 2023 based on downloads of her research papers from the SSRN database. Before coming to Cardozo, she was an Associate Professor of Law at the University of Utah, S.J. Quinney College of Law where she taught Federal Income Tax, Taxation of Business Entities and an International Tax Seminar.

Professor Calderón Gómez is an Assistant Professor of Law. He was previously a Visiting Assistant Professor of Tax Law at the NYU School of Law, where he taught Tax Policy Seminar and Taxation of Property

Transactions. His research centers on tax law, law and philosophy, economic regulation, and international law. Recently, he published an article in Tax Notes on tax avoidance schemes involving private placement life insurance policies.
