Screening of "The Prosecutors" and Q&A with Director Leslie Thomas

Tuesday, September 17 at 6PM
Third Floor Lounge

CLIHHR and the Cardozo Law Indie Film Clinic

Info for the event:

Victims dismissed as "collateral damage." Survivors silenced. Criminals left unpunished. This is the history of sexual violence in conflict that lawyers are trying to change.

The Prosecutors is a feature length documentary that tells the story of three dedicated lawyers who fight to ensure that sexual violence in conflict is not met with impunity. Filmed over five years on three continents, it takes viewers from the Democratic Republic of Congo to Bosnia and Herzegovina to Colombia on the long journey towards justice.

Following the film, CLIHHR Director Jocelyn Getgen Kestenbaum will moderate a Q&A with film director Leslie Thomas.

Refreshments will be served.

The Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust and Human Rights (CLIHHR) and the Cardozo Law Indie Film Clinic are sponsoring this event. The Indie Film Clinic is generously sponsored by the Tisch Illumination Fund.
