Upcoming Events and Announcements

Join The Center for Public Service for a virtual ceremony to celebrate our student and community 2020 Inspire! Awards recipients on Wednesday, June 10th at 5 pm.

The Inspire! Awards celebrate students and community leaders who made strides this past year in public service.

Please RSVP to receive the Zoom login information, which will be sent by Tuesday, June 9th.

We are thrilled we will be joined by our Community Impact Honorees, Angela Black, Sharonne Salaam, and Staci Dupont.

Our honorees made a significant impact on the Cardozo community during P*Law 2020, and the public interest at-large, by sharing their experience with the films When They See Us, The Central Park Five, and Raised in the System illuminating their stories of injustice. All three honorees are family members of men who suffered tragic injustices in our criminal justice system.

During P*Law 2020, they inspired a meaningful discussion about the often-overlooked plight of families whose loved ones have endured miscarriages of justice. The films have opened the eyes of millions to the need for criminal justice reform.

We are also honored that Kevin Richardson and Yusef Salaam, two of The Exonerated Five portrayed in When They See Us, and Dominic Dupont, whose story was told in Raised in the System, will be joining our Inspire Awards ceremony to help present our awards for the Community Impact Honoree category. Kevin and Dominic also participated in P*Law 2020's Lights, Camera, Justice panel.

ICYMI, you can view the recorded interview that rising 2L Victoria Lowe performed with Kevin during P*Law 2020 here.

We hope to see you on Zoom on Wednesday!

COVID-19 Legal Impact Program (CLIP) - Session 1, Prisoners' Rights
Friday, June 12, 12 - 2:30 pm

Please join the Center for Public Service and the Heyman Center on Corporate Governance for our first session of Cardozo's COVID-19 Legal Impact Program (CLIP). CLIP will allow you to build skills, network with practicing attorneys, and immerse yourself in some of the legal community's most pressing issues, particularly in light of the pandemic. This program is offered at no cost to students, and you are welcome to participate as many of the sessions as you would like.

Our first session on Friday, June 12th will be presented by two leading experts on prisoners' rights: Deirdre von Dornum, Attorney-in-Charge of Federal Defenders for the Eastern District of New York, and Marie Ndiaye, Supervising Attorney of The Legal Aid Society's Decarceration Project. Both of these attorneys have been on the front lines throughout the pandemic and during recent events in response to the tragic murder of George Floyd.

To participate in any of the CLIP sessions, you will need to register for our page on Canvas, which is where you can access all reading material, journal assignments, speaker information, and the Zoom login links.
