Illicit Art and Cultural Property Trafficking Across Borders

Friday, October 15 at 12:00 p.m.

Panelists will discuss the international illicit cultural property and art trafficking market and its legal implications, focusing on the applications of international law and international human rights law. Special focus will be given to antiquities and indigenous property, as well as the relationship between art trafficking and armed conflict.

Moderator:

- Michael McCullough, Cardozo adjunct professor and attorney at Pearlstein & McCullough LLP

Panelists:

- Dr. Patty Gerstenblith, Distinguished Research Professor at the DePaul University College of Law, Director of the Depaul University College of Law Center for Art, Museum & Cultural Heritage Law, and President of the Board of the U.S. Committee of the Blue Shield
- Toby Usnik, founder of Philanthropic Impact (π) and former Chief Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Officer at Christie's
- Yaél Weitz '09 of Kaye Spiegler PLLC

The panel will be remote, but students are welcome to view the event in Room 1008. Coffee and pastries will be provided.

This event is co-sponsored by the Cardozo Public Service Scholars, Cardozo Students for Human Rights, Cardozo Art Law Society, the FAME Center and the Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust and Human Rights.

An Evening with Vanessa Friedman

Tuesday, October 19 at 6:30 p.m.

Join Barbara Kolsun, Director of the FAME Center, for a conversation with Vanessa Friedman, Fashion Director and Chief Fashion Critic for The New York Times, about the future of fashion and why it remains relevant in a pandemic-weary world.

This event is sponsored by Loza & Loza LLP, the Cardozo Fashion Law Society, and the Cardozo Alumni Association Retail and Luxury Alumni Group.

The Encore with Swizz Beatz

Wednesday, October 20 at 6:30 p.m.

Join us for a repeat conversation with Grammy-Award winning Producer, DJ, Songwriter and music mogul Kasseem Dean, a.k.a. Swizz Beatz, moderated by Cardozo alumna Charity Gates '20. The force behind countless hits in the early 2000s and beyond, Swizz's boundary-pushing approach to production has helped shape the sound of hip-hop over this generation. An accomplished painter, art collector, and car enthusiast, Swizz is married to Grammy Award-winning singer Alicia Keys and is the father of five children.

This event is sponsored by Cardozo Black Law Students Association, Cardozo Entertainment Law Society, Cardozo Fashion Law Society, and The Nilson Law Group, PLLC.
