COVID-19 Legal Impact Program (CLIP) - Session 2, Public Benefits
Friday, June 19th, 12 noon - 2:30 pm

Please join the Center for Public Service and the Heyman Center on Corporate Governance for our second session of Cardozo's COVID-19 Legal Impact Program (CLIP). CLIP will allow you to build skills, network with practicing attorneys, and immerse yourself in some of the legal community's most pressing issues, particularly in light of the pandemic. This program is offered at no cost to students, and you are welcome to participate as many of the sessions as you would like.

Our second session on Friday, June 19th will be presented by two attorneys from the Legal Aid Society of Northeastern New York: Yoana Kostadinova-Dencheva, Economic Justice Staff Attorney and Michael J. Telfer, Senior Attorney - Disability Advocacy Project. Both of these attorneys have been on the front lines throughout the pandemic. They have been providing updates in real time to their clients, working tirelessly to ensure their clients have access to public benefits. They have also been providing essential internal training to their colleagues.

To participate in any of the CLIP sessions, you will need to register for our page on Canvas, which is where you can access all reading material, journal assignments, speaker information, and the Zoom login links.
