Professor Kate Shaw Discusses the SCOTUS Leaked Document and the Future of Roe v. Wade on ABC’s Start Here

“As of today, Roe and Casey are still the law of the land, but this opinion makes crystal clear that unless something really dramatic happens inside the Supreme Court ... these cases will be categorically overruled. And states can move as quickly as they want to totally ban abortion.” She also spoke about it on ABC News and Strict Scrutiny.

Cardozo Hosts Leading International Scholars for ‘The Parthenon Marbles Case and the Universal Museum Myth: Policies and Politics’

Leading scholars, government ministers and cultural advocates discussed the arguments over the rightful ownership of the Parthenon Marbles during this daylong symposium. Professor David Rudenstine and the Cardozo Arts & Entertainment Law Journal organized the event.

Professor Laura Cunningham Retires After 30 Years of Teaching

“I cannot thank Professor Cunningham enough for her dedicated years of service to Cardozo,” said Dean Leslie. “In addition to inspiring generations of students, she has been an outstanding colleague and a true friend. We will miss her very much.”
