Cardozo Welcomes the 2023 May-Entry Class

The first members of Cardozo’s Class of 2026 began their law school journey last week and received some words of wisdom from Dean Melanie Leslie, who urged them to, “take every opportunity, do your best. Give yourself this privilege; it is a privilege to be here. And remember to have fun because you will begin to have fun.”

Cardozo Celebrates Public Service at 31st Annual Inspire! Awards

Cardozo’s Center for Public Service Law celebrated the annual Inspire! Awards on May 23, honoring students, alumni and community leaders who have made strides in public service over the past year. Zach Dugan, Assistant Director, Career Services and Center for Public Service Law, thanked the nominees “for the light you bring to the legal profession, your countless clients, families and communities, past, present and future.”
