Cardozo Law Revue Activity Meeting: Join the Cast!

We are currently cooking up comic scenes and songs for the community's entertainment.
Now is the perfect time to join.

If you are interested (a) to show off a talent, (b) to join the cast for the Spring Semester, (c) to contribute writing, (d) to volunteer as crew, or (e) to just otherwise avert scholastic meltdown, join us for skit staging, singing, and improv.

Be a part of Cardozo's longstanding tradition, and most importantly, have fun!

Today at Room 423
7 pm

Food will be served.

"How to Use the Bluebook"
Presented by Cardozo Law Review

All 1L students are invited to attend one of these optional sessions:

Monday, April 15 at 12:00 PM in Room 424

Wednesday, April 17 at 12:00 PM in Room 424

As an alternative, students can obtain identical information by downloading the presentation (slides and audio recording) from the Writing Competition Canvas page beginning the week of April 29.

The sessions will be led by members of the Cardozo Law Review Editorial Board who do not have access to the Bluebooking Portion of the Writing Competition.
Students should bring their Bluebooks with them to the sessions.

End of the Semester Study Break with Professor Herz!

We invite you to join the last General Body Meeting of the year for the Cardozo Environmental Law Society. We'll be hosting a relaxed pillar-side chat with our beloved Professor Michael Herz for your guilty, "oh it's just an hour away from my outline," pleasure. Take a break from learning about everything else you have to cram into your head, and let the most affable Prof. Herz put a smile on your face while you bristle with umbrage at learning about the state of environmental law under the Trump administration. Perhaps there's some mitigating factors that might give us a shred of hope! So join us for a much deserved break, a gloriously FREE LUNCH, and a frank (and no doubt animated) discussion on the state of environmental law.

Monday, April 15th
12 - 1:30 pm
Room 525

Lawyers, Guns, and Money: The Second Amendment in American Politics and Law

Monday, April 15, 12 - 1pm, Fifth Floor Faculty Lounge (512)

Lunch will be provided.

Professor Saul Cornell (Fordham University) is one of the nation's leading authorities on early American constitutional thought. He has contributed to numerous amicus curiae briefs in court cases involving the Second Amendment, including most notably as the co-author of an amicus brief filed in District of Columbia v. Heller. Professor Cornell has been a Visiting Scholar at the Floersheimer Center for the Spring 2019 semester.

On April 15th at noon, please join us for a discussion of the current state of the Second Amendment, ten years after Heller. Saul will be in conversation with Professor Kate Shaw, Co-Director of the Floersheimer Center and former Clerk for Supreme Court Justice John Paul Stevens.

Among other topics, they will discuss New York State Rifle & Pistol Association Inc. v. City of New York, New York, which is slated to be argued next fall before the Supreme Court.

Design Legend Kenneth Cole and his daughter Emily Cole
(Columbia Law '14) Discuss
"Fashion with a Conscience"

For over 35 years, Kenneth Cole has leveraged his passion and unique brand platform seeking to make an impact on people's wardrobes, as well as communities in need. Cole has sought to make a more meaningful connection with people by addressing not just what they look like on the outside, but who they are on the inside; not just what they stand in, but what they stand for.

Presented by the Jacob Burns Center for Ethics in the Practice of Law and the Cardozo Criminal Law Society

Thursday, April 18th, 12 - 1 p.m.  3rd Floor Lounge  Lunch served

The creation of a Commission on Prosecutorial Conduct would make New York the first state with a separate body to address complaints about the conduct of its prosecutors. This panel will discuss the constitutional, legal, and policy issues raised by the legislation creating the Commission, as well as the lobbying effort to pass the legislation, the pending litigation challenging it, and the amendments made to the law before the amended bill was signed by Gov. Cuomo on March 27, 2019.

Panelists:

Hon. Robert S. Smith (Ret.), Partner, Friedman Kaplan Seiler & Adelman, and Former Associate
Judge of the New York State Court of Appeals

Mylan L. Denerstein, Partner, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, and Former Counsel to New York
Governor Andrew Cuomo

Marvin Schechter, Former Chair, New York State Bar Association Criminal Justice Section

Moderator:

Professor Jessica Roth, Co-Director of the Jacob Burns Center for Ethics in the Practice of Law

1.0 NY State CLE credits in Ethics and Professionalism available.
