Ethical Considerations for the Business and Corporate Attorney

Hosted by The Heyman Center on Corporate Governance at Cardozo School of Law and the Stein Center for Law and Ethics at Fordham Law School

Please join us for a lively discussion of current ethical issues that business and corporate attorneys face. The panel will address a variety of topics, including issue or positional conflicts, adverse counsel's ability to interview corporate employees, use of threats by opposing counsel, subordinate and supervisory attorney responsibility and in-firm attorney-client privilege.
