TODAY AT CARDOZO

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2018

Please join CLIHHR & The Cardozo Law Indie Film Clinic for a pre-release special screening of
The Silence of Others
on Monday, November 5 at 6PM in the Third Floor Lounge. A discussion with Fernando Travesi, Director of the International Center for Transitional Justice and reception will follow.

The Silence of Others reveals the urgent and ongoing struggle of victims of Spain's 40-year dictatorship under General Franco, who continue to seek justice to this day. Filmed over six years, the film follows victims and survivors as they organize the groundbreaking "Argentine Lawsuit" and fight a state-imposed amnesia of crimes against humanity, in a country still divided four decades into democracy.

Fernando Travesi is the Executive Director of the International Center for Transitional Justice (ICTJ). He has over 20 years of international experience in transitional justice, human rights, and rule of law. Prior to joining ICTJ in 2014, he was the Director of the UNDP Transitional Justice Basket Fund in Colombia. He also served as UNDP Senior Justice Advisor in Tunisia after the Jasmine Revolution.

Cardozo FIRE (For Immigrants' Rights and Equality) is hosting an Immigration Court Help Desk training session *tonight* November 5th, at 6-7:30pm, in room 204.

*Dinner will be served*

Lauren Wyatt, an attorney from Catholic Charities Immigration Services, will train students to volunteer in immigration court! 1Ls, 2Ls, 3Ls, and LLMs are welcome.
---No second language required and no immigration experience necessary.

More about the program: This is an excellent opportunity to get hands-on legal experience in immigration. It looks great on resumes and will likely be a talking point during interviews. After the training, Catholic Charities will offer a list of dates when students can sign up to go to immigration court for the day with the "Immigration Court Help Desk" program. Students will get to interview clients and fill out intake forms to help determine which immigration relief options people may be eligible for.

*1Ls, whether you're hoping to get an immigration-related internship or not, employers are impressed to see 1Ls who have already gone to court and worked with clients when most do not have any legal experience yet.

An Evening with Design Legend Stuart Weitzman

November 19, 2018

6:30 pm, MCR

The FAME Center at Cardozo Law and the Cardozo Fashion Law Society invite you to An Evening with Design Legend Stuart Weitzman

Stuart Weitzman's passion for design has been a lifelong pursuit: he began working at his father's Massachusetts shoe factory while still in college. After graduating from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Weitzman applied himself to the industry with laserlike focus, eventually building the globally-renowned company that bears his name. Today, his shoes dominate the red carpet events and are worn by loyal celebrity fans like Angelina Jolie, Taylor Swift, Haley Berry, Blake Lively, Beyonce, Nicole Kidman, Selena Gomez, Jennifer Lawrence, Gigi Hadid, Princess Kate and Princess Meghan, and by millions of women who buy them in over 75 countries around the world. Come spend some time with Weitzman and hear about his remarkable shoe design journey.

Cardozo's Philosophy and Law Society Present:

FREE SPEECH

and

ONLINE PLATFORMS

When: Wednesday, November 7th

Where: Moot Court Room

Time: 12:00 - 1:30 P.M.

Pizza will be served!

Protest speech invokes the First Amendment's values, but not necessarily the First Amendment's protections. Should this be the case for large online platforms such as Facebook or YouTube? Has the public space been redefined in the digital age? From digital harassment to conspiracy theorists, what role should the government take in online speech?

Please Join Us as we explore these questions.

Join Chabad at Cardozo at 12:10pm for Ten Minutes of Torah in room 425. Pizza will be served. Looking forward to seeing everybody there.

National SmokeOut Day is November 7th, 2018

Thinking about quitting?

Benefits to quitting the habit:

- Life Expectancy: Quitting smoking before the age of 40 reduces the risk of dying from smoking-related disease by about 90%.
- Money: Cigarettes can cost ~13 dollars a pack in NYC. Quitting can help you save close to $400 dollars a month!
- Appearance: Quitting helps stop the damaging effects of tobacco on how you look - premature wrinkling of your skin, gum disease, and tooth loss.
- Friends and Family: Remove the dangers caused by secondhand smoke for friends, family, and pets
- Feeling Better: Quitting will make food taste better, give you more energy, and help get rid of your cough

#MeToo and the Legal Profession Conference

Nov. 13th, 9:00 - 12:30 pm

Reception and check-in at 8:45 am

Jacob Burns Moot Court Room

CLE Credit available

Presented by the Jacob Burns Center for Ethics in the Practice of Law at Cardozo and the Cardozo Women's Law Initiative.

The #MeToo Movement, now a year old, has placed a spotlight on the structures in business, education, government, and the legal profession that allow those in power to abuse their authority. This conference will focus on the intersection of the #MeToo Movement and the legal profession, and the keynote will be given by Dean Melanie Leslie on #MeToo and the responsibility of non-profit boards.

Following Dean Leslie's address, two panels, moderated by Professor Jessica Roth and Professor Anthony Sebok, will examine harassment within the legal profession and options for lawyers whose clients have been accused of misconduct or abuse of power.

Panelists:

- Hon. Lorna Schofield, U.S. District Judge, Southern District of New York
- Professor Stephen Gillers, NYU Law School
- Gabrielle Tenzer of Kaplan Hecker & Fink
- Cara Greene of Outten & Golden

- Ally Coll Steele, formerly of Boies Schiller and founder of The Purple Campaign
- Professor Brad Wendel, Cornell Law
