

CARDOZO LAW

Cardozo Law News Brief

Spotlight on News from the Cardozo Community

Cardozo News

Professor Jessica Roth Talks to Reuters on Trump Organization Tax Fraud Indictment

"I think it is reasonable to expect that these will not be the last charges we see in this case," Roth says. She also spoke with USA Today.

Read More

Professor Ed Zelinsky Comments on SCOTUS Refusal to Hear New Hampshire Tax Case to The Josiah Bartlett Center for Public Policy

"I am disappointed that the Supreme Court would not hear this case but the Court's denial is the beginning not the end of the process," Zelinsky says. He also spoke to Law360 on the matter.

Read More

Professor Betsy Ginsberg Focuses on Bureau of Prisons' Report in The Intercept

A new public internal report from the U.S. Bureau of Prisons found widespread problems at the Metropolitan Detention Center leading up to a winter 2019 crisis. "It speaks for itself," says Ginsberg. "They found that the warden who was overseeing this facility allowed this to go on, and instead of taking corrective action to safeguard the lives of the people in their care, they promoted him."

Read More

Professor Rebekah Diller Speaks about Britney Spears and Supported Decision-Making on Wisconsin Public Radio

"It's certainly troubling that this has gone on for so long if she [Spears] has wanted to end it," Diller says.

Listen Here

Faculty Scholarship & News

- Professor David Rudenstine's article "Trophies for the Empire" was published in the current issue of Cardozo's Arts and Entertainment Law Journal.