Immigration Justice Clinic Issues New Report Covered in The Guardian

The new report focuses on electronic ankle shackles and the study was conducted by Freedom for Immigrants, Immigrant Defense Project, and Cardozo School of Law. Peter Markowitz, the co-director of the clinic, spoke to The Guardian about the report, saying, "I hope they will look hard at this research and realize the profound harms of the program." Tosca Giustini, a rising 3L student, says, "The Kathryn O. Greenberg Immigration Justice Clinic student team had the amazing opportunity to create a first of its kind report about ICE's use of electronic ankle shackles and the impact of the devices on immigrants."

The report was also covered in Al Día and Vice.
