A Conversation with Grammy-Award winning Producer, DJ, Songwriter and Music Mogul, Swizz Beatz.

Join us on Tuesday, September 29th at 6:30 p.m. for a conversation with Grammy-Award winning Producer, DJ, Songwriter and music mogul Kasseem Dean, a.k.a. Swizz Beatz, moderated by Cardozo alumna Charity Gates '20. The force behind countless hits in the early 2000s and beyond, Swizz's boundary-pushing approach to production has helped shape the sound of hip-hop over this generation. In the midst of a global pandemic, Swizz's extraordinary creativity has spurred the cultural phenomenon that is the music entertainment webcast Verzuz, where legendary musicians battle in front of a live audience. An accomplished painter, art collector, and car enthusiast, Swizz is married to Grammy Award-winning singer Alicia Keys and is the father of five children.

This event is sponsored by the Cardozo Alumni Association's Intellectual Property Practice Group and the Cardozo Fashion Law Society, Entertainment Law Society and Art Law Society.

The event link will be sent on the day of the event.

Cardozo Parity Project (General Body Meeting)

Cardozo Parity Project is a local chapter of the national organization, People's Parity Project. Our goal is to demystify and dismantle the coercive legal tools that allow the powerful to get away with violating workers' rights, ripping off consumers, and shielding corporations and the courts from accountability. At our GBM, we'll discuss the role of law students in ending the vicious cycle through which the legal profession—and the law itself—enables harassment, discrimination, and other injustices. We will also talk about the steps we can take to further Justice Ginsburg's work and to urge Senators to refuse to vote for a new Supreme Court Justice until people have voted.

Law Review Symposium: Fault Lines in the Constitution
Panel 1: Environmental Affirmative Rights in the 21st Century

September 25, 2020

12:00 – 1:00 p.m.

While the Framers wrote the Constitution, they did not anticipate climate change. This panel will discuss the different circumstances in which advocates, and scholars have argued for mandated government protection of the environment.

Moderator: Michael Herz, Arthur Kaplan Professor of Law, Cardozo School of Law

Panelists:

- Martha Davis, Associate Dean for Experiential Education and Professor of Law, Northeastern University School of Law
- James R. May, Distinguished Professor of Law, Widener University Delaware Law School
- Erin Ryan, Elizabeth C. and Clyde W. Atkinson Professor of Law, Florida State University
- Christopher Serkin, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, Vanderbilt Law School

This event is co-sponsored by the Cardozo Law Review and the Floersheimer Center for Constitutional Democracy

Law Review Symposium: Fault Lines in the Constitution

Panel 2: Sources of Affirmative Rights

September 29, 2020

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Americans look to the U.S. Constitution as the source of all rights, but the document only affirms negative rights. Panelists will discuss specific areas of rights deemed “fundamental” by society and the international community, and how the U.S. Constitution’s negative framing intersects with such societal needs.

Moderator: Alexander A. Reinert, Max Freund Professor of Litigation & Advocacy, Cardozo School of Law.

Panelists:

- Smita Narula: Haub Distinguished Professor of International Law, Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University;
- Cynthia Soohoo: Professor of Law and Co-Director of the Human Rights and Gender Justice Clinic (formerly named International Women’s Human Rights Clinic) at the City of New York School of Law;
- Eric Tars: Legal Director, the National Law Center on Homelessness & Poverty; and
- Joshua Weishart: Professor of Law and Policy, West Virginia University, joint appointment in the College of Law and the John D. Rockefeller IV School of Policy and Politics.

This event is co-sponsored by the Cardozo Law Review and the Floersheimer Center for Constitutional Democracy
