A Presentation by

Elizabeth Weitzman

Author of

Renegade Women in Film and TV

Elizabeth Weitzman by Leslie Hassler

Join Elizabeth Weitzman for a fascinating and engaging exploration about the ways female attorneys have been depicted onscreen over the last 100 years. In a presentation filled with lots of film and TV clips from different eras, Weitzman offers a great way to understand Hollywood's shifting views on women overall. Elizabeth Weitzman is a journalist, film critic, and the author of more than two dozen books for children and young adults. She currently covers movies for the Wrap, and was a critic for the New York Daily News for 15 years. In 2015, she was named one of the top critics in New York by the Hollywood Reporter. She holds a Master's degree in Cinema Studies from NYU, and is a longstanding member of the New York Film Critics Circle.

Weitzman's latest work, Renegade Women in Film and TV, is a charmingly illustrated and timely tribute to the women who broke glass ceilings in film and television, debuting during an historic time of change in the entertainment industry.
