

CARDOZO

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

LARC @ Cardozo Law

Today at Cardozo 2018

Today at Cardozo

11-26-2018

Week of November 26, 2018 - November 30, 2018

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: <https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/today-at-cardozo-2018>

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, "Week of November 26, 2018 - November 30, 2018" (2018). Today at Cardozo 2018. 28.

<https://larc.cardozo.yu.edu/today-at-cardozo-2018/28>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Today at Cardozo at LARC @ Cardozo Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Today at Cardozo 2018 by an authorized administrator of LARC @ Cardozo Law. For more information, please contact larc@yu.edu.

TODAY AT CARDOZO

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2018

Missed our open house? Interested in representing indigent clients nationwide in litigation to challenge the imprisonment of the innocent, learning about remedies to constitutional violations, and engaging in human rights and criminal justice reform? Join Innocence Project attorneys & former clinic students for an info session on campus to learn about next year's clinical program!

Monday Nov. 26 at 12:00 PM. Room 423. Pizza will be served.

Monday, Nov. 26th, 12:00 - 1:15pm
Room 1008

Please join the Cardozo community for a panel discussion about the Harvard affirmative action case with lawyers from the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. (LDF).

Cara McClellan, current Skadden Public Interest Fellow at the LDF, and Rachel M. Kleinman, Senior Counsel at the LDF, will speak about affirmative action litigation and their involvement in Students for Fair Admissions v. President and Fellows of Harvard College, which recently wrapped up in Boston.

The NAACP LDF filed an amicus brief on behalf of 25 different student organizations at Harvard, arguing that the elimination of the consideration of race in Harvard's college application process will lead to further discrimination against applicants of color.

This event will be moderated by Professor Michelle Adams.

Lunch served; no RSVPs necessary

Upcoming Events and Announcements

The Role of Financial Actors in Human Rights Violations

Wednesday, November 28 at 12PM in Room 420

Lunch will be served

Please join the Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust and Human Rights (CLIHHR) for a thought-provoking and timely discussion with Diana Kearney on the role that financial actors play in human rights violations. Ms.

Kearney will explain how private banks, individual investors, and multilateral development banks contribute to human rights injustices, including environmental degradation. She will then discuss both the domestic and international legal obligations financial actors are held to, international regimes that guide how to mitigate these impacts, and what tools advocates can use to push banks to stop causing or contributing to human rights violations.

Diana Kearney was a Visiting Instructor of Clinical Law and Telford Taylor Teaching Fellow at Cardozo Law's Benjamin B. Ferencz Human Rights and Atrocity Prevention Clinic from 2016-2018. She previously worked as a Legal Adviser in Oxfam America's private sector department, where she focused on corporate accountability and human rights abuses, strengthening land rights, and improving businesses' human rights performance. Her background is in international development and agriculture. Diana graduated from NYU Law in 2014.

The Office of Student Services and Advising Presents:

Art as Therapy Workshop
Tuesday, November 27th

5pm
Room 206

Manage the dips & turns of law school more creatively.
*Join faculty and students from the NYU Graduate Art Therapy Program to learn more about art therapy & how you can use art to make the ride
of life more tolerable.

All art materials will be provided.

Cardozo International Law Society, Prof. Pearlstein Discussion on Jamal
Khashoggi & Saudi Arabia

Please join the Cardozo International Law Society, and Prof. Pearlstein, for a brief discussion on Jamal Khashoggi & Saudi Arabia on

Tuesday, November 27th from 12:30-1:15pm in Room 205.

Please note that attendance at this event will guarantee admission to the
International Law Society's spring tour of the United Nations.

TODAY AT CARDOZO

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 2018

The Office of Student Services and Advising Presents:
Art as Therapy Workshop

Tuesday, November 27th

5pm

Room 206

Manage the dips & turns of law school more creatively.
Join faculty and students from the NYU Graduate Art Therapy Program to learn more about art therapy & how you can use art to making the ride of life more tolerable.

All art materials will be provided. No experience is necessary.

Cardozo International Law Society,
Prof. Pearlstein Discussion on Jamal Khashoggi & Saudi Arabia

Please join the Cardozo International Law Society, and Prof. Pearlstein, for a brief discussion on Jamal Khashoggi & Saudi Arabia on Tuesday, November 27th from 12:30-1:15pm in Room 205.

Please note that attendance at this event will guarantee admission to the
International Law Society's spring tour of the United Nations.

Upcoming Events and Announcements

There were no events requested at this time.

TODAY AT CARDOZO

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2018

Join Chabad at Cardozo at 12:10pm for Ten Minutes of Torah in room 425.
Pizza will be served.
Looking forward to seeing everybody there.
Please reach out to Gaby Kraushaar

The Role of Financial Actors in Human Rights Violations
Wednesday, November 28 at 12PM in Room 304
Lunch will be served

Please join the Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust and Human Rights (CLIHHR) for a thought-provoking and timely discussion with Diana Kearney on the role that financial actors play in human rights violations. Ms. Kearney will explain how private banks, individual investors, and multilateral development banks contribute to human rights injustices, including environmental degradation. She will then discuss both the domestic and international legal obligations financial actors are held to, international regimes that guide how to mitigate these impacts, and what tools advocates can use to push banks to stop causing or contributing to human rights violations.

Diana Kearney was a Visiting Instructor of Clinical Law and Telford Taylor Teaching Fellow at Cardozo Law's Benjamin B. Ferencz Human Rights and Atrocity Prevention Clinic from 2016-2018. She previously worked as a Legal Adviser in Oxfam America's private sector department, where she focused on corporate accountability and human rights abuses, strengthening land rights, and improving businesses' human rights performance. Her background is in international development and agriculture. Diana graduated from NYU Law in 2014.

Upcoming Events and Announcements

There were no events requested at this time.

TODAY AT CARDOZO

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2018

Come join Cardozo FIRE (For Immigrants' Rights and Equality) for our final General Body Meeting of the fall semester!

Thursday, Nov 29, 12-1pm, room 102

Mac and cheese will be served. We look forward to seeing you there!

MSA Study Break

Where: Room 424

When: November 29th (Thursday), 3-5PM

What: Hi Guys! Our MSA will be having a study break this Thursday. Come on down and take a quick break from your finals studying and enjoy some pasta and desserts! We cannot wait to see you all there!

Upcoming Events and Announcements

There were no events requested at this time.

TODAY AT CARDOZO

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2018

The building closing time for today is 4:15pm.
The Library will be closing at 4:00pm

There were no events requested at this time.

Upcoming Events and Announcements

Cardozo Environmental Law Society (CELS) Fall Study Break

Join the Cardozo Environmental Law Society (CELS) for our Fall Study Break on Monday December 3rd, 2018, from 4:30-5:30 pm in Room 206.

Pasta, salad, garlic bread, and chips w/ salsa will be served!