Today At Cardozo

Monday, October 18, 2021

Please join Cardozo's Family Law Society for a Know Your Rights Training today at 12 PM in Room 205! Food will be provided.

Please join the Unemployment Action Center, Cardozo Chapter this evening from 6:30-8PM in Conference Room 1008 for our Chapter's Advocate Training Session!

The Unemployment Action Center ("UAC") is a student-run non-profit organization that provides free legal representation for claimants who seek to secure unemployment benefits in adversarial hearings before an administrative law judge. UAC Advocates have the opportunity to work directly with clients and practice litigation skills by conducting direct and cross examination and making closing arguments. To take a case, you must attend at least one advocate training, so please join us tonight! We'll also be serving pizza!

The Encore with Swizz Beatz

Wednesday, October 20 at 6:30 p.m.

Join us for a repeat conversation with Grammy-Award winning Producer, DJ, Songwriter and music mogul Kasseem Dean, a.k.a. Swizz Beatz, moderated by Cardozo alumna Charity Gates '20. The force behind countless hits in the early 2000s and beyond, Swizz's boundary-pushing approach to production has helped shape the sound of hip-hop over this generation. An accomplished painter, art collector, and car enthusiast, Swizz is married to Grammy Award-winning singer Alicia Keys and is the father of five children.

This event is sponsored by Cardozo Black Law Students Association, Cardozo Entertainment Law Society, Cardozo Fashion Law Society, and The Nilson Law Group, PLLC.

The Zoom link will be sent to those registered on the date of the event.

FALL 2021 SYMPOSIUM: Afghanistan - What's at Stake: National Security, Human Rights, and the Rule of Law

The Cardozo International & Comparative Law Review is pleased to host a virtual symposium on Thursday, October 21st, from 6:30 to 8:00 pm EST to discuss the rule of law crisis in Afghanistan. The symposium will focus on promoting the rule of law in conflict territories and will discuss Afghanistan as a case study. Panelists will discuss the history of the Afghan legal system and what were the obstacles to development. Is democracy a prerequisite to a rule of law system? How, if at all, did Afghanistan's 2004 Constitution change the legal landscape? Panelists will also discuss peacebuilding strategies and whether international law can be used as leverage over the Taliban, which is now in control of the government. If the Taliban thwarts monitoring efforts about suspected human rights violations, what can be done by the international community as a response?

Please register for our virtual panel below

Join us for a virtual panel with Mehdi Hakimi, Executive Director at the Rule of Law Program at Stanford Law School; Kimberly Motley, International Human Rights lawyer who has worked in Afghanistan since 2008; S. Ayse Kadayifci-Orellana, a research affiliate at the Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace and Security; Saeed Shajjan, Founder and Managing Partner at Shajjan & Associates; moderated by Deborah Pearlstein, Professor of Law and Co-Director of the Floersheimer Center for Constitutional Democracy at Cardozo Law School.
