Join Women in Tech Law (WiTL) Cardozo Chapter for our first general body meeting on January 28 in room 420 from 12-1!

WiTL Cardozo is seeking new members to help build a community of like-minded women who are interested in pursuing a career in tech law. The tech industry continues to grow rapidly and at times changes so quickly the law has a hard time keeping up. As an organization, we hope to introduce our members to the expansive repertoire of possible careers in the field.

Please join us for our first official general body meeting and have a chance to sign up for a free headshot to use in your LinkedIn profile (details provided at the meeting).

Lunch will be provided.

"Rethinking Social Media"

An expert discussion moderated by Professor Monroe Price

Thursday, January 31st, 6-8pm

Moot Court Room

Sponsored by the Cardozo Moot Court Honor Society and the Howard M. Squadron Program in Law, Media, and Society.

Join us for a discussion about the recent avalanche of efforts to reformulate social media relating to its sheer size, child pornography, cyberstalking, the augmentation of terrorist threats and hate speech, and, of course, the disturbance of US elections. This panel features leading young scholars dealing with developing Internet issues critical to society. Robyn Caplan is a Researcher at Data and Society, Jessa Lingel is on the faculty of the Annenberg School for Communication at the University of Pennsylvania, and Cardozo Professor Felix Wu's current work focuses on free expression and cybersecurity.

Conversation with a Startup Lawyer

Speaker: Jordan Koss '10, Member and Head of Startup/VC Law, McDonald Hopkins

Date: Monday, February 4, 2019

Time: 12:00 pm

Location: Rm 205

Lunch will be provided. Registration is required: please register here.

Please join us for a lunch talk with Jordan Koss '10, Member and Head of Startup/VC Law at McDonald Hopkins and Cardozo Alumnus! Mr. Koss will describe his day-to-day work as a startup lawyer and some of the common investment options used by early-stage companies, including the role lawyers play in connection with a startup's capital raising process. He will also discuss his career path since graduating from Cardozo. Prior to joining McDonald Hopkins, Mr. Koss was an attorney with Fenwick & West, Kirkland & Ellis, and goodcounsel.

This event is open only to the Cardozo community. If you register and can no longer attend, please let us know so that we have an accurate headcount for catering purposes.

CARDOZO ART LAW SOCIETY PRESENTS

Copyright in Photography

Monday 2/4 at 6PM

Dean's Conference Rm 1008

Join CALS on Monday, February 4th at 6PM for a panelist discussion on the inner workings of copyright in photography. Hear from commercial celebrity and entertainment photographer Noam Galai. In 2006, Galai created "The Stolen Scream", a self portrait that quickly became one of the most used photographs of all time. Inspired by this work, panelists from Christie's, Frankfurt Kurnit Klein & Selz PC, and Cowan DeBaets Abrahams & Sheppard LLP will provide insight on legal concerns within the photography industry.

Please join Chabad at Cardozo for a Welcome Back Shabbat at the Manhattan Penthouse on 80 5th Avenue on Friday, February 1st.
