Professor Gabor Rona Publishes Op-Ed in Just Security on Lawsuit Against President Trump

"It was not an easy decision to sue the president. As Americans, as lawyers, and as professors of law, each of us deeply respects our Constitution and all in our government who have sworn to uphold it. But orders by President Donald Trump and his Cabinet make us afraid to continue our lifelong work for justice, and so we are forced to seek a court ruling against this menace to our constitutional rights."
