The Challenges Facing Law Students and Practitioners with Disabilities

A Conversation with Anat Maytal

Anat Maytal is the president of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing Bar Association (DHHBA) and an attorney with Baker Hostetler in New York City specializing in Business Litigation. Anat will share her experiences as a legal practitioner and former law student with a disability.

Our hope is to foster an open dialogue about issues facing our students with disabilities, answer questions, and develop a better understanding about our roles as educators and models of conduct.

Tuesday, April 4
Noon - 1:30 p.m.
Room 1008

Open to faculty, administration and staff.
Lunch will be served.
