YESHIVA UNIVERSITY

Professor Christopher Buccafusco invites you to:

Case of the Week:
Wine Tasting Class 2
"The Big Six"

Thursday, April 2, 2020
7 p.m.

For this week's tasting, Prof. Buccafusco will introduce you to the Big Six Grapes: Pinot Noir, Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Riesling, and Sauvignon

Blanc. From these six grapes, you can understand all of the rest of the world of wine. He recommends that you choose any grape that you're interested in, or, better yet, choose two red or two white grapes for a comparison. He will be drinking French versions of each of these. If you would like to as well, he has listed some guidelines below. But you should get whatever suits you.

Finally, Prof. Buccafusco will talk about pairing wine with food and cheese. Below are some recommended cheeses.

Cabernet Sauvignon: anything that says Bordeaux, Haut Medoc, or Medoc

Pinot Noir: anything that says Burgundy, Bourgogne, or Cotes de Nuits

Syrah: anything that says Cotes du Rhone or Crozes Hermitage

Chardonnay: anything that says Burgundy, Bourgogne, Chablis, Macon, or Pouilly Fuisse

Riesling: anything from Alsace (although Prof. Buccafusco might drink something from the Finger Lakes)

Sauvignon Blanc: anything from the Loire, Sancerre, Pouilly Fume, Quincy, Reuilly

Cheeses for red wines: manchego, gouda, parmigiano Reggiano, aged cheddar, mild blue (St Agur is a favorite), comte

Cheeses for white wines: brie, triple crème, Humboldt Fog (the world's best cheese), comte, Epoisses (another favorite)

If you would like to taste along, you can order a bottle of the wine through delivery services like drizly.com or vivino.com, or you can choose to drink whatever you prefer!

Feel free to bring friends and family!
