The Cardozo International & Comparative Law Review is pleased to host a virtual symposium on Strategies and Tactics of Human Rights Advocacy During a Global Pandemic to address how justice-seeking movements and organizations have been impacted by the crises created by COVID-19 and how they have had to respond with different methods to further their work. Panelists will identify what tools are proving most effective in their responses and what role lawyers and advocates can play to curb deepened and emerging justice challenges. The panelists will address how they have changed their legal approaches to advocacy or direct representation in their different fields during the global pandemic and how this might affect future international human rights advocacy strategies and litigation in the future.

Thursday, November 19th, from 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm EST

Join us for a virtual panel with Anita Sinha, the Director of the International Human Rights Law Clinic at American University, Washington College of Law, Eric Tars, the National Homelessness Law Center's legal director, Katie Czapanskiy, a Staff Attorney with the Human Rights First Refugee Representation team, Suzannah Phillips, the Deputy Director of Women Enabled International, and Rajesh Umadevi Srinivas, the Executive Director of Sangama, India, moderated by Ramya Kudekallu, a Telford Taylor Teaching Fellow and Visiting Instructor of Clinical Law at Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust and Human Rights.

Cardozo Public Service Summer Stipend Mandatory Meeting & PILC Fair 101

Friday, November 13, 1:00 - 2:30 pm, Zoom

Cardozo offers a stipend for students working in unpaid legal internships in public service during the summer. If you think you may need funding to work at a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, government agency, or judicial chambers or IF YOU ARE UNCERTAIN where you will intern next summer, you should attend one of these meetings to learn about the stipend and the requirements to receive it.

You do not have to have an internship lined up to attend the meeting and apply for the stipend.

To be eligible for Cardozo's Public Service Summer Stipend, attendance is required at one of the three times this meeting is being held, and there are no exceptions. You MUST RSVP on Symplicity for the session you plan to attend.

Following the Summer Stipend info session, you can remain on the Zoom meeting and join the optional but extremely valuable second part of this program, PILC 101. During PILC 101, you will learn how to register and navigate the website for the Public Interest Legal Career (PILC) Fair, which is held annually, in order to maximize your opportunities for summer internships or post-graduate employment in the public sector.
