Professor Matthew Wansley Quoted in The New York Times on Driverless Taxi Service Regulations

“If Cruise’s vehicles are unsafe in California, they should be unsafe in other states as well,” Wansley said. “There are inconsistent regulations across the country.”

Professor Pamela Foohey Speaks to WYPR Baltimore on Archdiocese's Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Filing and What That Means for Victims of Clergy Abuse

“Between 2004 and 2022, 28 dioceses and three other organizations affiliated with the Catholic Church have filed Chapter 11,” Foohey said. “It has become a common practice when a diocese is facing a host of litigation, either actual or potential, relating to abuse claims.”
