The Jacob Burns Center for Ethics in the Practice of Law and the Cardozo Law Institute in Holocaust and Human Rights invite you to

Book Talk:
Lawyer, Jailer, Ally, Foe

Thursday, October 19 at 6:00 p.m.
Third Floor Lounge

Join Professor Jessica Roth and Professor Jocelyn Getgen Kestenbaum for a conversation with Eric L. Muller, author of the newly released book Lawyer, Jailer, Ally, Foe: Complicity and Conscience in America's World War II Concentration Camps.

Eric L. Muller is Dan K. Moore Distinguished Professor in Jurisprudence and Ethics at the University of North Carolina School of Law. He is editor of Colors of Confinement: Rare Kodachrome Photographs of Japanese American Incarceration in World War II and author of Free to Die for Their Country: The Story of the Japanese American Draft Resisters in World War II.

Lawyer, Jailer, Ally, Foe brings to vivid life the stories of three white lawyers, with contradictory instructions — provide legal counsel to the prisoners, but keep the place running — illuminating a shameful episode of American history through imaginative narrative deeply grounded in archival evidence.

This event will be followed by a light reception.
