Professor Richard Weisberg Speaks to Jewish Insider, Referenced in The New York Times on SCOTUS Holocaust Restitution Case

Weisberg, who filed an amicus brief in Simon v. Hungary, "noted that it is difficult to map out a liberal/conservative paradigm based on the questions judges offered in [the December 7] arguments — and that it can be generally foolhardy to try to anticipate how justices will vote." Weisberg's brief was referenced in The New York Times piece covering the matter.
