Statement in Response to the Hate Crime Committed in Poway, California during Passover Services

We join with the people of Poway, California in condemning the horrific hate crime committed today in their community, and we mourn for all the victims and their loved ones. That the attack took place on a sacred day for people of the Jewish faith inside a house of worship reminds us all that we must vigilantly fight anti-Semitism in all forms.

Cardozo Law stands with the members of Congregation Chabad.

If anyone in the Cardozo student community has been affected by this tragedy, or is seeking emotional support in response, please contact Dean Maria Saez-Tatman at Maria.saeztatman@yu.edu (<mailto:Maria.saeztatman@yu.edu>).
